

Genesee Valley gets the upper hand on Portville

PORTVILLE — In an Expressway Conference match that featured six forfeits, Genesee Valley Central School got a pair of key pins in downing Portville, 45-30, on Wednesday night.

Glen Proctor and Travis Thurston recorded back-to-back first-period falls at 135- and 140 for the Jaguars (2-3).

"We really don't match up well with Portville," said GV coach Bruce Garfield. "They have the advantage at the lower weights and we had the upper hand in the upper weights."

"I think the win was decided at 135 and 140. Proctor and Thurston had two big pins for us in those matches."

Zach Shaw had the lone victory on the mat for Portville (2-

2) at 130.

"Genesee Valley is definitely the more experienced team," said Portville coach Mike DeBarbieri. "Their kids wrestled well tonight."

Fillmore 42, Olean High 27

OLEAN — Kyle Ackerman and Andrew Miller recorded pins at 125 and 215, respectively, to spark Fillmore (1-3).

For Olean (0-6), Zach Marra recorded a 13-8 decision over Coty Voss at 96 and Jerry Pena won at 112.

"This was Zach Marra's very first varsity match," said OHS coach Mike O'Connor. "He looked pretty good."

Franklinville 39, Wellsville 27

WELLSVILLE — Jordan

Young, Justin Monroe and Garrett Farrington recorded pins at 119, 135 and 140, respectively, while Colin Palmer (152), Justin Titterington (160) and Jesse Hanner (215) all won via decisions to lift Franklinville (5-0).

Joe Patrick (103), Nick Lehmer (3:26) and Darren Barnett (145) each won with pins for Wellsville.

SOUTHERN TIER DIV. I

Fredonia 66, Allegany-Limestone 5

ALLEGANY — Kyle Roosa's 17-2 decision at 160 was the only win for Allegany-Limestone (0-4).

"Our kids wrestled hard," said A-L coach Tony Margeson. "Fredonia has a fantastic team. They are going to send a few kids to the state tournament this year."

NON-LEAGUE

Westfield 45, Cattaraugus-Little Valley 25

CATTARAUGUS — Matt Elliott (152) and Richard Preston (215) recorded pins for Cattaraugus-Little Valley (0-4).

Iroquois 36, Salamanca 28

ELMA — Despite a trio of pins, Salamanca fell to 3-2 in a non-league loss to Iroquois.

Carmen Papa (135), Mitch Hoag (171) and Steve Jacobson (189) had falls for the Warriors, while Matt Metzler added an 18-8 decision at 225.

"I really don't want to say the officials cost us the match," said Salamanca coach Mike Sebaaly, "but the regular officials didn't show up and we ended up calling a couple of guys who normally work JV matches."

"We got some bad calls at 103 and 145. I felt we wrestled well in those two matches, but the refs didn't see it that way.

"You know its bad when the other coach comes to you after the match and tells you that you could have won had it not been for the officiating."
