

Mills and Rinaldi pin down win for C-G

From staff reports

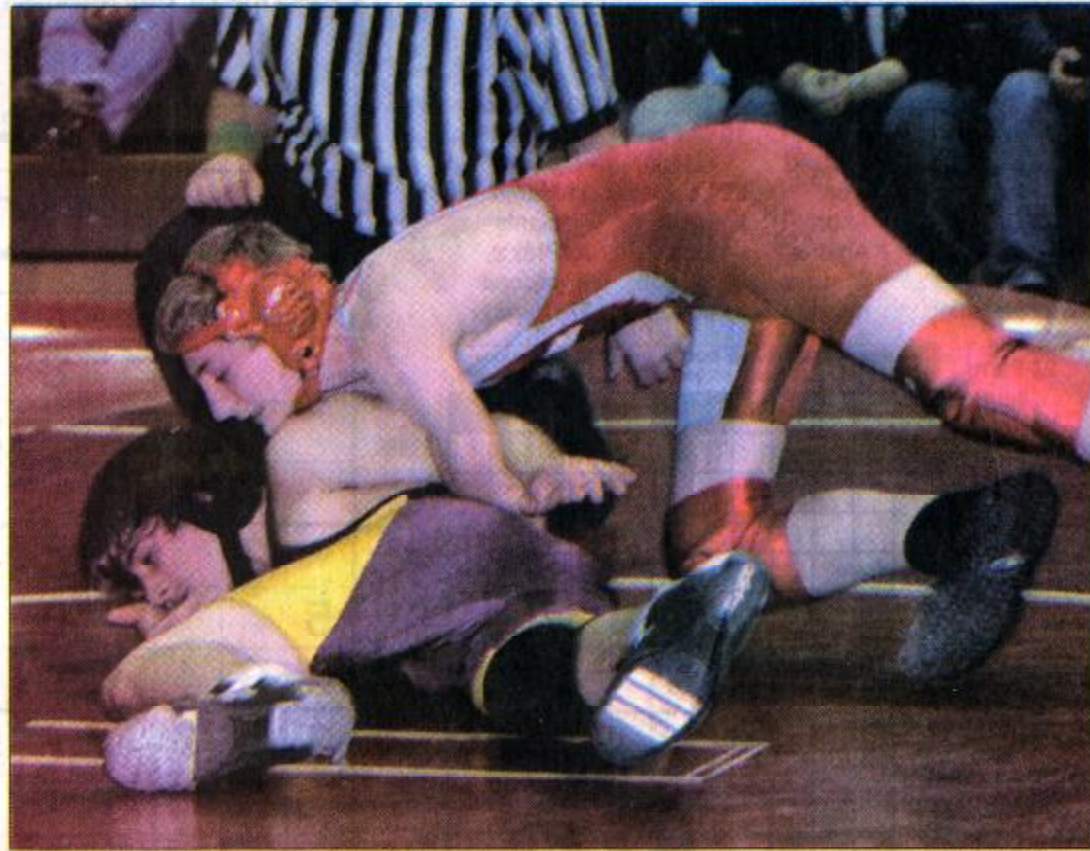

CANISTEO — Brandon Mills and Joe Rinaldi recorded back-to-back pinfall victories in the last two matches of the night to seal a 39-33 Steuben County Athletic Association victory for Canisteo-Greenwood over Avoca Thursday.

"We moved both of them up," C-G head coach Mickey Woodworth said. "We have a lot of forfeits, so we're trying to move kids around to win these league matches.

"Brandon did real good to come up with the pin for us with an excellent spladle," he added, "and Joe came back and did a good job in the last match."

The two teams traded victories over the first four matches to tie the score at 12-12. C-G received pinfall victories from Alec Pratt (160) and Craig Amidon (189), while Jay Nicholson (152) and Garth Lester (171) each won by pin for the Tigers.

After a series of forfeits and Avoca leading 30-24, C-G's Mark Ahearn won in a 10-3 decision over Mike Grillo to pull the Redskins within three points.

Both teams failed to present at 130, and Avoca's Dave Hogan won, 11-3, against Chris Rauber at 135 before Mills and Rinaldi won back-to-back matches.

"Most everybody did a good job," Woodworth said. "We started out slow but we just have to work a little bit harder we've got to get ready for sectionals so they have to start picking it up a little bit."

The Redskins improved to 5-1 overall on the season and remained undefeated in SCAA action.

C-G is scheduled to travel to Alfred-Almond Jan. 18.
