

Caputo and Butler Lead Crimson In 27-15 Win over Brown

Courtesy: Harvard Athletic Communications Release: 02/10/2007

Cambridge, Mass. – The Harvard wrestling team won its second straight match with a 27-15 win over Brown Saturday afternoon at the Malkin Athletic Center. The Crimson won seven straight bouts, including two by bonus points to improve to 4-6 overall and 2-1 in the Ivy League. Brown falls to 2-10 overall.

Brown took a 12-0 lead, earning falls in the first two matches at 125 and 133. But No. 16 Max Meltzer got things going for the Crimson with a 5-4 overtime win over Mark Savino at 141. At 149 pounds, sixth ranked J.P. O'Connor picked up six team points when Bryan Tracy was disqualified for stalling. O'Connor held a 12-1 major decision when the disqualification was called. No. 9 Andrew Flanagan tied the team score at 12 with a 7-1 decision over Thomas Fazio at 157 pounds.

Courtesy: DSPics.com

Junior Matt Button put Harvard on top with 4-0 win over Brian Cudden at 165 pounds. Freshman Fred Rowsey added three more points with a 6-1 decision over Chris Musser at 174. No. 15 Louis Caputo earned a 15-0 technical fall in 6:00 over Matt Geveninger and junior Jonathan Butler won his 197 pounds match by a 16-3 major decision.

Brown earned a 10-3 decision at 285 pounds when Zach Zdrada defeated Andrew Knapp.

- Harvard 27, Brown 15
- 125 Greg Einfrank def. Ryan Fitzgerald, F, 1:08
- 133 Jeff Schell def. Simon Orozco, F, 1:19
- 141 No. 16 Max Meltzer def. Mark Savino, D, 5-4 2OT
- 149 No. 6 J.P. O'Connor def. Bryan Tracy DQ (6:00)
- 157 No. 9 Andrew Flanagan Thomas Fazio, D, 7-1
- 165 Matt Button def. Bran Crudden, D, 4-0
- 174 Fred Rowsey def. Chris Musser, D, 6-1
- 184 No. 15 Louis Caputo def. Matt Geveninger, Tfall, 15-0 (5:00)
- 197 Jonathan Butler def. Josh Serene, Md, 16-3
- 285 Zach Zdrada def. Andrew Knapp, 10-3

Show Menu

