

Bears Swept in Philly by #14 Penn, Drexel

Mock gets 12-1 major decision against Quakers, four win vs. Dragons

Feb. 2, 2007

Philadelphia, PA - The Brown wrestling team (1-9, 1-5 EIWA, 0-1 Ivy) found no brotherly love in Philadelphia on Friday, falling in duals to No. 14 Penn (5-5, 1-0 EIWA, 1-0 Ivy), 33-4, and non-conference opponent Drexel (14-10), 22-14.

Junior co-captain Levon Mock (Bangor, MI) earned a 12-1 major decision at heavyweight for Brown's only win against the Quakers. Penn, sporting five nationally-ranked grapplers, picked up five major decisions and a tech fall, picking up an 8-0 lead before Mock's victory and rolling afterwards.

Things went far better for Bruno against the Dragons, as the Bears won four of the first six matches to take a 13-9 lead. Sophomore Matt Gevelinger (Mineral Point, WI) got things started with a 19-9 major decision at 184 pounds. After Drexel took the lead back on a pin, sophomore Zach Zdrada (Atkinson, NH) won in his first match of the season, taking a 3-2 decision at heavyweight. The Dragons again responded, with a decision at 125. However, juniors Jeff Schell (Zion Grove, PA) and Mark Savino (Princeton, NJ) won their matches at 133 and 141, respectively. Schell took an 11-1 major decision, getting the Bears a two-point lead, and Savino followed with a tight 3-1 decision. However, Drexel won the final four matches, taking the 22-14 victory.

Brown will get right back on the mats Saturday, traveling to New Jersey to take on Princeton (0-12, 0-5 EIWA, 0-1 Ivy) at 1 p.m.
