

Cornell Matmen Lose To Iowa State Team

ITHACA, Jan. 10—Iowa State broke Cornell's 13—Meet wrestling streak this evening at Barton Hall, defeating this Big Red, 18-11, before 2,500 fans. For the Cyclones, defending Big Eight champs, it was their 18th match over a three-year period without a setback.

Dave Auble got the home forces off to a good start by pinning rival 123-pounder Dennis Friedericks with a double grapvine and half—nelson in 4:07. Cornell was unable to win another bout, though three Red grapplers fought their Iowa State opponents to draws.

Turning point of the meet came in the 157-pound encounter, when Ellie Watkins held Steve Friedman to a draw in a minor upset. Al Marion and Dave Dunlop also earned draws. A close 5-4 triumph by the Cyclones' Tom Green in the 177-pound clash over Phil Oberlander sealed Iowa State's third victory in as many nights against Central New York opposition.

National champs Les Anderson and Ron Gray won via the decision route, but were unable to secure pins. George Willis gave Anderson quite a battle before bowing, 3-0. Cornell's next match is an Ivy League encounter against Penn next Saturday in Ithaca.
