

11 Iroquois Matmen Gain In Tourney

Host Iroquois Central advanced 11 men last night in the Section VI Class AA wrestling tournament. The semifinals will be held tomorrow at 1:30 and the finals and consolations at 7:30, both at Iroquois.

Four schools, Orchard Park, Hamburg, Medina and Maryvale, each advanced seven wrestlers. Lancaster advanced seven and Lake Shore four.

The quickest pin was accomplished by Maryvale's Ron Pelowski, who stopped Hamburg's Jim Roucche in 28 seconds in the 123-pound class. Teammate Denny Valentic pinned Lancaster's Bill Lathrop in 32 seconds of their 157-pound match.

In the night's only overtime match, Denny McMillan of Lancaster defeated Fred Ross of Lake Shore in the 130-pound class. Another match saw Tom Dantly of Medina decision Dave Segool of Orchard Park, 7-6, in the 115-pound class.

Dave Lang of Orchard Park upset Denny Kingan of Lake Shore, 8-3, in the 136-pound class, while Bob Stuhlmiller of Hamburg upset Alton Comstock of Lake Shore, 3-0, in the 141-pound class.
