

Eden Matman Is Rated Best

Dick Minekime of Eden High School was named the outstanding matman at the first ECIC Invitational Wrestling Tournament held yesterday in Maryvale High School.

Only individual championships were recorded, with Amherst and Iroquois producing three champions each, Frontier two, and West Seneca, Cleveland Hill, Springville and Eden one each.

More than 1,000 fans watched the program.

98—Bob Travers (Amherst) d. Jim Prunella (Maryvale) in overtime. 106—Dricht Beranek (West Seneca) pinned Jim Alexander (Hamburg). 115—Hank Guillia (Amherst) d. Dick Nicotra (Maryvale). 123—Paul Kacmarski (Frontier) d. Don Feltz (Springville). 130—Ron Krane (Iroquois) d. Mike Shapiro (West Seneca). 136—Den Newell (Iroquois) d. Dennis Dietrick (Frontier) in overtime. 141—Don Malecki (Iroquois) d. John Parkinson (Amherst). 148—Bert Ball (Springville) d. Pete Dillon (Hamburg). 157—Nick Kish (Amherst) d. Dave Flower (Lancaster). 168—Dick Minekime (Eden) d. John Schroeder (Iroquois). 183—John Tryan (Frontier) d. Hank Weil (Iroquois). Heavyweight—Larry Macro (Cleveland Hill) pinned Don Hout (Lancaster).