

Intersectional Mat Qualifier Today

Fifty-two boys with a combined record of 833-68-6 will represent 29 schools in the Intersectional Qualifying Wrestling Tournament today at Erie Tech.

Competition will get under way at 1 p.m. with the semifinal matches. The consolations are scheduled for 6:30 and the finals will follow immediately.

Competing are the 13 winners from each of four sectional tournaments held last weekend. Champions represented are Kenmore East (AAA), Niagara-Wheatfield (AA), Southwestern (A) and Portville (B-C).

Section VI for Winners

The four sectional winners of each weight class will battle to represent Section VI at the State Intersectional Championships next weekend at RIT.

Five 1968 Section VI champions are entered. Tonawanda's Jim Verrastro, voted the AAA tournament's most valuable wrestler, will defend his 98-pound title. His record is 21-0.

DePadre Moves Up

Also defending crowns are Portville's Larry Reynolds (21-0) at 115 pounds and Dennis Brown of Niagara Falls at 130. Brown's log is 19-0.

Nick DePadre, one of eight Niagara-Wheatfield matmen in the qualifier, won the 148-pound crown last year and will be after the 157-pound title tonight. DePadre was the AA tournament's most valuable performer. His record is 19-1.

The 115-pound competition will feature two 1968 champs. Reynolds may well face Amherst's Pete Leone, last year's 106-pound titlist, in the championship match. Leone carries a 19-1 mark into today's competition.
