Cassadaga Valley Wins 'B' Sectionals

DEPEW — About 1,000 persons enjoyed the Class A Sectional Wrestling Tournament here and the Class B matches at Cattaraugus, Saturday.

Over 350 attended the Depew-based tournament, while fans in excess of 600 cheered on the Class B grapplers at Cattaraugus.

Both meets were close, Eden edging out Gowanda, 96-92, in the former, and Cassadaga Valley posting an 82-73 win in the latter.

Eden had to come from behind, copping the last three weight classes by pins. Cass Valley, on the other hand, led nearly all the way, despite a strong challenge by the host school.

Lyle Boss, Gowanda's undefeated 130 pounder, won the Class A's "Outstanding Wrestler" award, while Randolph's 115 pound Dwayne Berg was voted this honor among the "Bs".

These two wrestlers will appear on tonight's late sportscast on Channel Two with Bill Mazer from Buffalo.

The summaries contain the top two from each weight class.
