

'Sectional Week' For The Wrestlers

It's "Sectional Week" for area grapplers as over 100 tendon tuggers prepare for their big tests of the season this weekend.

Locally Falconer hosts the Class A meet with 11 schools invading FCS Friday night and all day Saturday. Falconer coach Dan Lounsbury's in charge of locals, entered in the Falconer tourney include Salamanca and Gowanda from the Southern Tier Conference; Starpoint, Royalton-Hartland and Albion from the Niagara-Orleans league and Alden, Depew, Eden and Springville from the Erie County Interscholastic Conference.

TOPS IN TIER (League Matches Only)
Wt.	W	L	Dr	Pins
Hvy Harris, Sala.	8	0	0	8
130 Cross, SC	8	0	0	7
168 D. Scott, CM	8	0	0	7
106 Strom, SW	8	0	0	6
115 Holmes, SW	8	0	0	4
123 Evans, Catt	7	0	0	6
157 Butman, Fal	7	0	1	5
98 Christensen, SW	7	0	1	3
157 La. Steinbar, Catt	6	0	1	4
98 D. Marsh, CV	6	0	1	2

The Class B-C tourney, involving county schools Cassadaga Valley, Pine Valley and Silver Creek, will be held at Franklinville. Also entered in the tourney from the Southern Tier Conference are heavily-favored Cattaraugus and Randolph.

the two day program but cross-town coach Flash Olson has the team that could win it.

Cattaraugus County, where wrestling is relatively new for most schools, claims Allegany-Delevan-Machias, host Franklinville and Portville. Holland and Grand Island of the ECIC are entered, along with Akron from Niagara-Orleans.

The Trojans, prepping for the sectionals with a non-leaguer at Silver Creek Tuesday, just ended a 15 meet mat skein at Corry last weekend. They're 10-1 for the season and claim the Holiday Wrestling Tournament crown plus the Southern Tier team championship.

Jamestown High takes its wares (notably "Jumbo" Jim Stockwell and Jonas Johnson) to North Tonawanda to vie in the Class AAA sectionals. Stockwell's defending unlimited champ here.

Other schools, besides the two

Nearby Pennsylvania mat teams entered in the Section IV, District 10 tourney at Meadville include Warren, Corry and Northern Area.

Dexter Paces Randolph At Brocton

BROCTON — Six foot junior Tom Dexter played one of his better games tallying 16 points and pulling down 17 rebounds to lead Randolph to a 57-55 win at Brocton Saturday.

Pine Valley at Cattaraugus, a makeup meet, ends the Southern Tier Conference season Tuesday. Jamestown High concludes its regular season host to Warren.

The win gave Pete New-House's Cardinals a 10-6 record for the season after battering Brocton 71-44 at home.

- TUESDAY
- Southern Tier
- Pine Valley at Cattaraugus
- Non-League
- Southwestern at Silver Creek
- Warren at Jamestown
- Salamanca at Franklinville
- Pennsylvania
- Non-League
- Saegertown at Corry
- FRIDAY
- Sectionals
- Class A at Falconer, 7 p.m.
- Class AAA at North Tonawanda, 7 p.m.
- Pennsylvania Section IV, District 10 at Meadville, 7 p.m.

Randolph had a 10 point bulge entering the final moments of play and a last second brought the Bulldogs within two. The Cards grabbed the boards, 57-38; and shot 36 per cent from the field, despite committing 36 turnovers.

- SATURDAY
- Sectionals
- Class A at Falconer, 1 p.m. (Finals 8 p.m.)
- Class B-C at Franklinville, 12 p.m. (Finals 8 p.m.)
- Class AAA at North Tonawanda, 1 p.m. (Finals 8 p.m.)
- Pennsylvania Section IV, District 10 at Meadville, 12:30 (Finals 8 p.m.)

Rand.	G	F	T	Broc.	G	F	T
Honey	5	2	12	W Janes	0	2	2
Gribbin	0	0	0	Westin	2	0	4
T Dex'r	5	6	16	H Janes	7	0	14