

Steuben Dominates Mat Tournament

The six wrestling squads from Allegany County found the Steuben schools too tough last night at the Bi-Counties Wrestling Tournament held at Alfred-Almond school, and managed to win just three of the thirteen bouts.

The match, which was well-attended despite the weather, had a total of 13 schools competing. No team scores were kept.

Fred Wolfer of Fillmore ran his record to 20-0 as he registered a come-from-behind decision at 158- pounds. Friendship's Gary West scored a pin over previously undefeated Roy Elliott of Savona at 129 and Alfred-Almond's John Ninos decisioned Orr of Hammondsport in the 115-pound class.

Mike Harvey of Alfred-

Almond, the Allegany County champion at 101-pounds was unable to compete because of illness and his place was taken by County runner-up Jeff Evans of Fillmore.

The winners now advance to the Section 5 finals to be held Saturday at Monroe Community College.
