

OAKFIELD GRAPPLERS WIN G-O LOOP TOGA

Gypsum Villagers Shade Albion, 67-66 to Win Bi-county Crown.

M'GEE LOSES IN UPSET

Fighting off a sustained challenge from Albion High, Coach George Messinger's Oakfield-Alabama Central School wrestlers won their third consecutive Genesee-Orleans wrestling championship on the Oakfield mats Saturday night.

The Oaks shaded Albion by a 67-66 margin while Holley grabbed off third place with 18 points, Lyndonville was fourth with 13 and Alden, fifth with 8 counters.

Biggest upset of the tournament came when Dick Canham, Albion heavyweight, pinned Roger McGee of Oakfield, the 1951 sectional champion, who has lost only one match in his last 35 starts. In the final matches, Albion captured six triumphs while Oakfield-Alabama won five and Holley took one victory.

At the close of the bouts, individual medals were presented to the winners in each weight class by Coach Messinger. The winners will represent the league in the Section 5 tourney in Rochester on Saturday. Edmond Canne, Batavia sportsman, sponsored a league championship trophy, which he presented to Tillman Meney, Oakfield-Alabama's team captain. The summary:
