The Wrestling Team

The 1967-68 wrestling team was by far the most successful wrestling team in the history of Barker. This squad of hard working boys was one of the most respected (and feared) wrestling teams in the Niagara-Orleans League. By defeating such teams as Medina, Roy-Hart, and Albion, our team proved to become quite popular in the minds of the student body at Barker. Each meet the team had, the home cheering squad grew larger and larger.

With the theme of "Get tough, eat'em up", the team was led by Paul Harvey, Randy Ray, and Joe Hausler. Other outstanding wrestlers were "Rock" Snell, Tom Stratton, John Rutherford, Bob Wagner, and Ken Leuer. Brought up from the J.V. squad, Paul Richards proved to be an extremely valuable asset in the 105 lbs. class.

With the increased popularity of this sport, and with a large number of experienced wrestlers coming back, next year's season should prove as successful as the '67-'68 one did.
