

ITHACA AND BELLMORE CO- CHAMPIONS OF S. L. U. TOURNAMENT

Ithaca High School and the  lington C. Mephram High School of Bellmore, L. I., mat teams were co-champions of the fifth annual high school wrestling tournament presented under the patronage of St. Lawrence University, in which 110 wrestlers representing 14 high schools competed Friday and Saturday at Brewer Field House. With the title goes the mythical interscholastic championship of New York State. Little Falls High School and Gouverneur were next in order of scoring. The tournament was the largest ever held here and drew good crowds at all programs of the preliminaries, semi-finals and finals.
