

Larry Wrestlers to Compete In National Collegiate Meet

ANNUAL SCHOLASTIC WRESTLING MEET ★ TO START MARCH 15

Plans for the second annual interscholastic wrestling tournament to be held on March 15 and 16 in the Brewer Field House have been completed.

At least fifteen of the thirty invited high schools are expected to participate in the annual event. Chateaugay, Little Falls, Malone, Walcott, and Van Hornesville high schools have already forwarded their entries. Gouverneur, Alexandria Bay, Coeymans, Norwich, Potsdam, Ogdensburg, Elmira, and Canton are among the invited schools who have not yet decided to attend.

The number of bouts scheduled necessitates a two-day period for the tournament. Last year's tournament, won by Little Falls and Alexandria Bay, lasted only one day.

Mark B. Banks, superintendent of the Men's Dormitory, is chairman of the committee for the arrangement and completion of the tournament.

St. Lawrence and Colgate Debate Arms Problem

Upholding the negative side of the proposition Resolved: that the private manufacture of arms and munitions be forbidden by international agreement, the Men's Varsity Debate Squad debated a Colgate University team on Saturday afternoon over WCAD.

Mr. William Sanderson and Mr. C. Robert Otis were the speakers for Colgate on the affirmative side; Mr. Gerald VanDuzee '36 and Mr. Elbert Bellows '37 were the negative speakers. It was a no-decision debate.

Next Saturday, March 16, the squad will meet Hartwick College team on the same question. St. Lawrence will take the affirmative side on the occasion.

Ricks, Olympic Aspirant in 1932, Will Compete in 175 lb. Division

With two full weeks remaining before the National Collegiate wrestling championships to be held at Lehigh University will begin, the entire St. Lawrence University mat team is working out daily in preparation for the coming event.

It is definite that three wrestlers, Quenelle, Paquette, and Covell, all of whom set enviable records on the undefeated Scarlet team, will enter in these championship bouts on March 23-24. There is a strong possibility that the entire Larry team will participate in the annual event.

According to information relayed from William Sheridan, Lehigh's mat coach, approximately 130 wrestlers have already entered as compared to the previous high mark of 89.
