

OGDENSBURG FREE ACADEMY WINS MAT TOURNNEY

Ogdensburg Free Academy wrestlers were first in the second annual interscholastic wrestling tournament of high schools from Northern and Central New York, sponsored by St. Lawrence University, in the final round of matches at the Brewer Field House Saturday evening. Teams from Alexandria Bay and Little Falls High Schools tied for second place, while Norwich High School was third.

Individual champions received gold medals and wrestlers taking second place in the finals received silver medals. The bronze plaque for the team placing first and the individual medals were awarded by Professor Charles M. Rebert, chairman of the St. Lawrence University Board of Athletic Control and president of the Little College Conference of New York.

Eleven schools were represented and seventy-eight wrestlers took part. The schools entered were Alexandria Bay, Canton, Chateaugay, Cranberry Lake, Gouverneur, Little Falls, Malone, Norwich, Ogdensburg, VanHornesville, Wolcott.

The tournament was directed by Superintendent M. B. Banks of the Men's Dormitory and Roy B. Clogston, director of athletics at St. Lawrence University.
