

The second annual scholastic wrestling tournament, held here at St. Lawrence last Friday and Saturday, was a huge success, according to Mark B. Banks, who had charge of entries. About 80 high school boys, representing 12 secondary institutions of the state, were present at this tournament. Ogdensburg Free Academy won the team cup, but° was hard pressed by a well-coached team from Little Falls. Among schools represented were Gouverneur, Crayberry Lake, Malone, Chateaugay, Norwich, Canton, Alexandria Bay, and others.

—SLU—

Champions crowned in the eastern intercollegiate wrestling championships last Saturday night:

118 lb. class—Rudolph Ashman, Lehigh.

126 lb. class—William Chilvers, Columbia.

135 lb. class—John Light, Penn State.

145 lb. class—Samuel Servis, Syracuse.

155 lb. class—Julian Gregory, Princeton.

165 lb. class—Howard Johnston, Penn State. (Retained title.)

175 lb. class—Edward King, Columbia.

Heavyweight — Howell Scobey, Lehigh.