

Sixteen Schools to Enter Scholastic Wrestling Meet

St. Lawrence University will be the host to several leading high school wrestling teams of New York State on the week end of March 20 and 21, when the third annual Scholastic Wrestling Tournament, begun in 1934, will be held in Brewer Field House.

The quarter-final round will start on Friday, March 20, the semi-finals on Saturday afternoon, and the finals on Saturday night. To the winner of the individual matches will go a medal, for both first and second places, and to the winning team will be presented a silver loving cup.

At present the weight classes range from 105 pounds to unlimited. Accommodations for coaches and teams over fifty miles from Canton will be provided at the Men's Dorm.

High schools expected to enter the meet are: Camden, Alexandria Bay, Canton, Chateaugay, Cranberry Lake, Gouverneur, Little Falls, Malone, Norwich, Ogdensburg, VanHornesville, West Carthage, Wolcott, Tupper Lake, Potsdam, and Ellenburg Depot.

BING'S

Your Fraternity or Sorority Plaque

in beautiful, lasting colors

$1.75