

Interscholastic Mat Tourney Opens Tonight

The 20th annual Rochester Interscholastic League wrestling tournament will be held tonight at East High with preliminaries and quarterfinals scheduled for 6 o'clock.

Semifinals, consolations and final championship bouts will be held at 6 p.m. tomorrow.

Each school will enter one wrestler in each of the 12 weight classes. The 12 overall winners will represent the Interscholastic League in the Section 5 tournament in Penn Yan, Saturday, Feb. 26.

Five wrestlers are expected to defend their city titles. They are John Turner, Franklin (115 pounds); Lou Masi, Jefferson (123); Robert Perry, Madison (141); Casper Pizzo, Edison (183) and Phil Nuciola, Franklin (HW).

Expected to place high are Don Vandenberg, Ray Mondscheim, Jim LoMoglio and Tom Cannorozzo of Edison; Sam Dade and Jim Ellis of Madison; and John Spencer and Mel Washington of Monroe.

—D&C Photo by Joe Watson
TWO HEADED—Don Roberts of Churchville-Chili (face to camera) and Marty Emerch of Greece Olympia make like two heads on one body in wrestling match. Roberts, defending Section 5 Tournament champion, won match.