

Swearingen pulls upset

Sam Swearingen of York, third in the Class C sectionals, upset Class AA champion Mark King of Canandaigua by a 2-1 decision at 132 pounds in the Section 5 state qualifying wrestling tournament last night at Fairport High School.

Dennis Essom of East Rochester, third in the Class A tournament last weekend, surprised George Eblacker of Hilton, the Class AAA champion at 145 pounds, 13-6.

Chuck Tortorello of Fairport decided Batavia's Tom Burney at 112 (6-4) and Steve Burton of Hilton (98) decided Robert Egan of Brockport by a 5-0 score in other upsets.

Bob Kyff of Fairport, who was favored to reach the finals at 167 along with East Rochester's John Zito,

High School Update

was unable to wrestle because of a foot injury.

The injury occurred in a practice session on Wednesday, said Fairport Coach Pete Logan. Kyff was practicing with another wrestler who fell on Kyff's foot. The foot was swollen, but X-rays showed no fracture.

"It's a very severe sprain," said Logan. "He should be out a full week. He may have ligament problems as a result of the injury. He can't put full weight on the foot."

Steve Levine of Brighton (119) also was injured and unable to wrestle.

GIRLS BASKETBALL: Jody Lavin scored 31 points and Andrea Venuti added 10 as DeSales (11-1) defeated Shrewsbury (9-3) in a Finger Lakes League game in Geneva, 43-28. Jenny Kinsy led Bloomfield with 10.

Greece-Athena (11-1) took over first place in the Monroe County League's Central Division with a 42-39 victory over previously unbeaten Irondequoit (10-1) at Athena. Claire Drexler led Athena with 20 points and Candy Owens led Irondequoit with 14.

Eastridge (2-9) upset Fairport (9-2) in a Monroe County League Eastern Division game at Fairport, 43-41.

Vicky Pawlick's 21 points led Webster Schroeder (7-3) to a 50-30 victory over Rush-Henrietta Roth (1-9) in a Monroe County League game at Schroeder.