Annual Ceramic Convention to be Attended by Alfred University Instructors. Others News Notes

Alfred, Feb. 4.—The annual convention of the American Ceramic society will be held in Detroit, Mich., beginning with the 14th of February and lasting to and including the 19th. The Alfred ceramic school will be represented by Director Charles F. Binns, Miss Marion Fosdick and Miss Clara K. Nelson. The Ceramic Guild, a ceramic society within the school is sending Miss Altana Clark as its representative. It is expected that a number of students will be in attendance at the convention.

Since the founding of the ceramic society in 1898, all transactions of the society have been published in a report in book form and up until the present 28 volumes have been printed.

The American Ceramic society is the most important of its kind in the world, inasmuch as manufacturers and producers all over the universe attend the meetings in order to learn of prospective employees.

At the convention there will be a large exhibit of pottery which will include many pieces from the school located here at Alfred, some of Director Binns' own work.

Wrestling Meet

A wrestling meet will be held at the Davis gymnasium Saturday evening at which time the University of Springfield matmen will try their skill against the varsity bone busters. Coach Seidlín is handling his mat men a hard workout this week, although hindered greatly by the mid-year exams which are in session all this week. Kelly, who is sure to throw his opponent has had the misfortune to throw his right thumb out of joint several times this past week in practice which leaves him with practically no grip in the right hand, but everything is being done to get the torn ligaments mended in time for him to compete Saturday evening.

It is well worth the price of admission to see the little wiry captain, Daniel Caruso, who has not been thrown in his career here in Alfred with the varsity.

Stearns, who is nursing a "cauliflower" ear is expected to be in trim for the coming contest.
