

Mayville Grapplers Score 27-13 Win Over Cassadaga

Cassadaga — Inter-scholastic wrestling made its formal debut in Chautauqua County here at the Central School last night, the Eagles of Mayville Central scoring a 27-13 victory over Cassadaga Valley Central.

An estimated 200 spectators witnessed the 10-match card, which was termed "highly successful" by both Coach Ken Depledge of Cassadaga and Coach Hank Limbaugh of Mayville.

Dick Hover of the Jamestown physical education system, and former wrestler at Ithaca College, acted as referee.

Points were awarded on the basis of five per pin, three per decision.

The results:

96-Pound—Fred Josephson (CV) pinned Charles Smith (M), 1 minute of 2nd period.

115—Nell Hayward (M) decisioned George Williams (CV).

120—Ronald Raynor (M) decisioned George Wesley (CV).

125—Bob Anderson (CV) pinned Donald Balcom (M), 3:15 of 1st period.

130—Joseph Hanson (M) decisioned Bill Huelett (CV).

135—Dick Smith (CV) decisioned James Busch (M).

140—Merrill Hall (M) pinned Frank Imm (CV), 30 seconds of 3rd period.

150—Clough (M) decisioned Bill Blizzard (CV).

155—James Moss (M) pinned Atwell (CV), 1:40 of 1st period.

160—Everett Swan (M) pinned Dale Barmore (CV), 1:40 of 1st period.

Special 140-pound match Jim Brooks (CV) pinned Ed Gibbens (CV), 1 minute of 2nd period.

Seven Teams Set In Muny League

Seven teams appear set for this year's approaching Muny AA Baseball League play.

Represented at the league's initial organizational meeting at the Recreation Office last night, were Green Brothers, Jamestown Finishing Products, Bombers, Marlin-Rockwell, Field and Wright and an unnamed nine. Fenton Lumber is a tentative

