

structed dressage rings, (but with limited seating for spectators), well planned stabling including good living quarters for grooms, a completed cross country course and a centrally located stadium jumping area. The weak link seems to be general accommodations for spectators as hotel space is limited in Moscow plus a short supply of tickets for the dressage and the three day event.

BUCKLEY TOURNAMENT HOSTS 8 SCHOOLS

AVON 30, MT. MORRIS 27

FARR'S PERSISTENCE GETS WIN

It was the outcome of the 177 pound weight class that would determine the winner of the Avon-Mt. Morris meet held at Mt. Morris on December 14th. At the time Avon was 30 and Mt. Morris was 27; when Avon's Pete Farr met Mt. Morris' Joe Schmidt. The first period was scoreless as each wrestler struggled for control. The second period Pete got a reversal and finally pinned the tough opponent. It took 3 minutes and 33 seconds for Farr to pull the team to a win. It was an extra special win for Farr as Schmidt pinned him last year.

The ending score was Avon 42 and Mt. Morris 32. After the 177# Wgt class, Vince McKeown won a forfeit and Steve Pagano from Mt. Morris won a forfeit. One point was deducted from Mt. Morris' team score by the referee Don DeBatts because a wrestler threw his headgear in disgust.

Jr. Varsity: 105 Leo Frew, W-D (6-3), Atol Gupta; 132 Bob Appleton, W-P (1:54), Mike Nasca; 135 Jim Vonglis, W-P (1:07), Ken Brock; 145 Arnold Duncan, L-P (2:31), Charles Coburn
Exhibition: 112 Rick Rees, W-Default, Dave Magglo.

There were several good matches and near upsets. Some wrestlers were recuperating or fighting colds and flu.

Tod Keenan, a freshman, was pinned in the second period by tough Mike Smith.

Stacy Phillips got a forfeit when Mt. Morris was unable to fill the weight class.

John Plamplano, a freshman, was scoreless as Kelley Smith beat him with a 2 point takedown, 1 point stall, and a 2 point reversal. John used every bit of his defense to prevent from getting in a nearfall position.

Jeff Rothrock, a sophomore, beat Brian Truax with a 9-4 win. Jeff earned 3 reversals and a 3 point nearfall. Brian earned a takedown and a reversal.

Tracy Regan, a senior, came from behind with a 7-2 score to pin Tony Perry in the second period. Although Tracy got a takedown in the first period, Tony accumulated 7 pts. with an escape, an illegal hold, a takedown, and a 3 pt. nearfall. Tony is a sophomore and a tough contender.

Andy Vonglis, a junior, beat Dave Hoffman with a superior decision of 17 pts. to 1. The team got 5 pts. for the win. Andy had 2 takedowns, 1 reversal, 3 two pt. nearfalls, and 1 pt. for illegal hold.

Randy Kelley, a freshman, gave his opponent Dan Smith tough Competition before getting pinned in the 3rd period.

Todd Close, a junior, beat Scott Chapman 15-4 for a major decision to net the team four more points. Todd earned a takedown, a reversal, an escape, 2 two pt. 1 nearfall, and 2 three-pt. nearfall while Scott earned a reversal and 2 points for two illegal holds.

Leo Frew, a freshman, wrestled his first match and beat his opponent 6-3. Leo was quick and earned pts. for 2 takedowns and a reversal.

Bob Appleton, a sophomore, pinned Mike Nasca in an action packed first period. Appleton earned 6 points and Nasca earned 4 pts. before the first period pin.

Jim Vonglis, a sophomore, wrapped his match up in 1 minute and 7 seconds when he pinned Ken Brock.

Arnold Duncan, a freshman, lost in the second period when Charles Coburn pinned him. Prior to that each had 8 points.

Rick Rees was a quarter pound overweight and therefore wrestled Dave Magglo in an exhibition match. The match was even when Magglo was visibly ill and didn't continue the match.

Avon is currently 2 wins and 0 losses. December 19th Avon will go to LeRoy for a 6:30 match.

Avon will host 7 schools at Buckley Tournament December 22 from 11 am.-10 pm. Your support would be appreciated.

The David Buckley Memorial Tournament will be held Saturday December 22nd at the Avon Middle School. Wrestlers will arrive at 8:30 am. for weighins and seeding arrangements; competition will start at 11 am. consolations will begin approximately at 7 pm. and finals will start at 8 pm. Admission is $ 2 for adults and $ 2 for students.

This is the 6th Annual Buckley Tournament held in the honor of David Buckley, a staunch supporter of high school wrestling, who was killed in a mine explosion in Retsof.

Eight Schools will participate in the day long event: Livonia, Waterloo, Haverling-Bath, Newfane (near Buffalo) Pavilion, Honeoye Falls-Lima, Elba (near Batavia), and Avon.

There will be individual trophies for the champion and runnerup of each of the 14 weight classes. There will be a team trophy for the team that accumulates the most points.

The Avon Braves lineup for the tournament: (Wrestle offs will be necessary in some weight classes), 91# Tod Keenan, 98# Stacy Phillips, 105# John Plamplano, 112# Jeff Rothrock or Rick Rees, 119# Tracy Regan, 126# Andy Vonglis, 132# Dan Fagan or Jim Vonglis or Randy Kelley, 138# Randy Kelley or Jim Vonglis or Dan Fagan, 145# Chris Phillips, 155# Todd Close, 167# Ken Clements, 177# Pete Farr, HWY Vince Keown or Bob Smith, UNL No Contender.

The cheerleaders will be keeping score and posting records. They are: Dody Thompson, Brenda Taylor, Jeannette Forrest, Jeannette Forrest, Lori Cochrane, Sue Waird, and Becky Chalmers.

The American Field Services (AFS) in Avon will offer three hot meals and quick lunches on the premises to the wrestlers and all who attend the tournament. Meals will be available from 8:30 am. through 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Breakfast menu will be eggs, cereal, fruit, milk, and hot chocolate. Lunch menu will be soups, sandwiches, pizza, fruit, chips, ice cream, candy, milk and pop. Supper menu will be sloppy joes, applesauce, fruit, and beverages.

This is a fund raising project for AFS who help to sponsor exchange students. Presently Judy Herron from Avon is in France and Edith Albornaz from Chile is attending Avon school; she is staying with Dick and Bonnie Peffley. It is expected this project will be well received by the participants and the crowd. It avoids searching for a diner in the winter weather. Let us support our Braves and AFS, too.
