

Grapplers Show Good Form

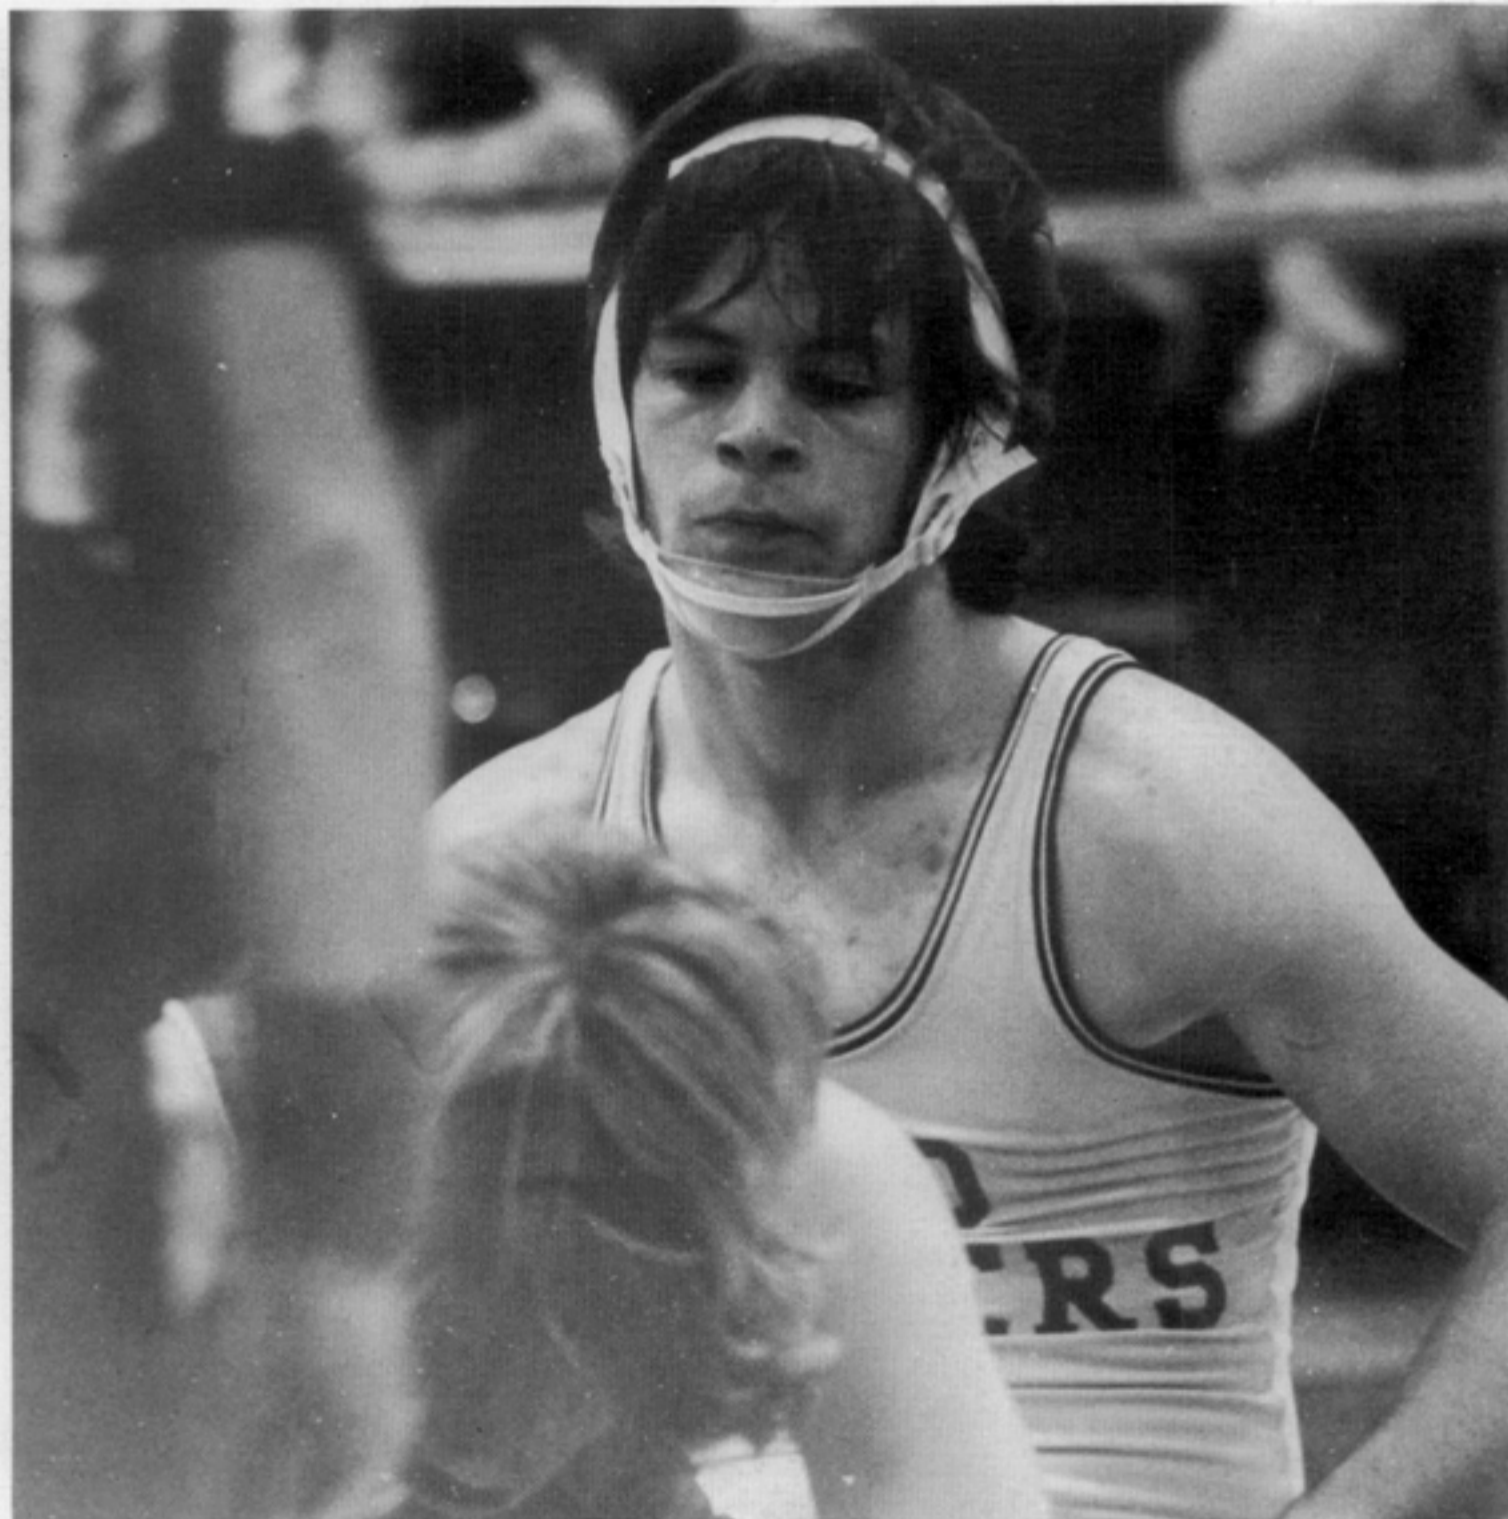

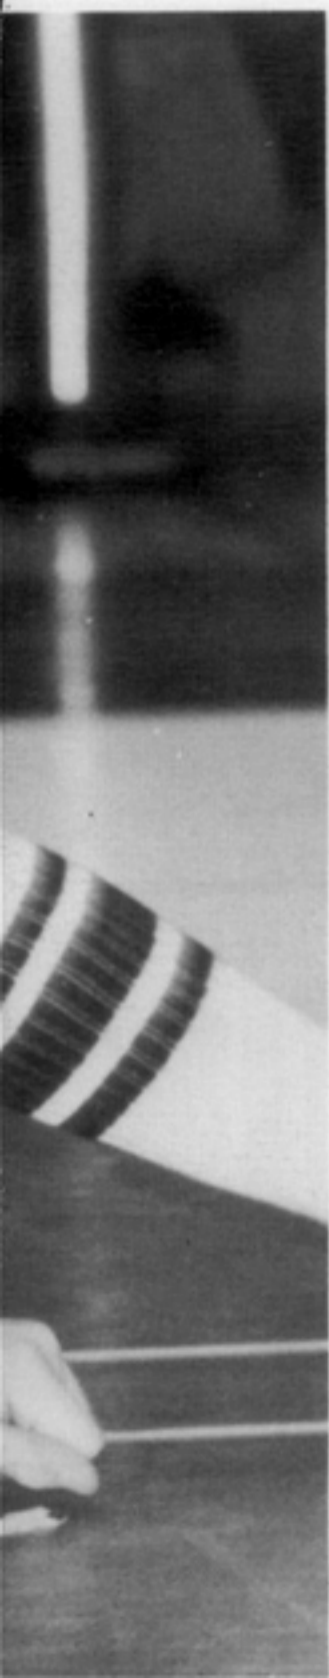

left: Senior Tim Hancy positions himself to put pressure on opponent for take-down.

Below: C.M.C.S. star wrestler, Robin Parker, makes it seem easy. Last year Robin placed second in the state championships, losing his final match 7 to 6.

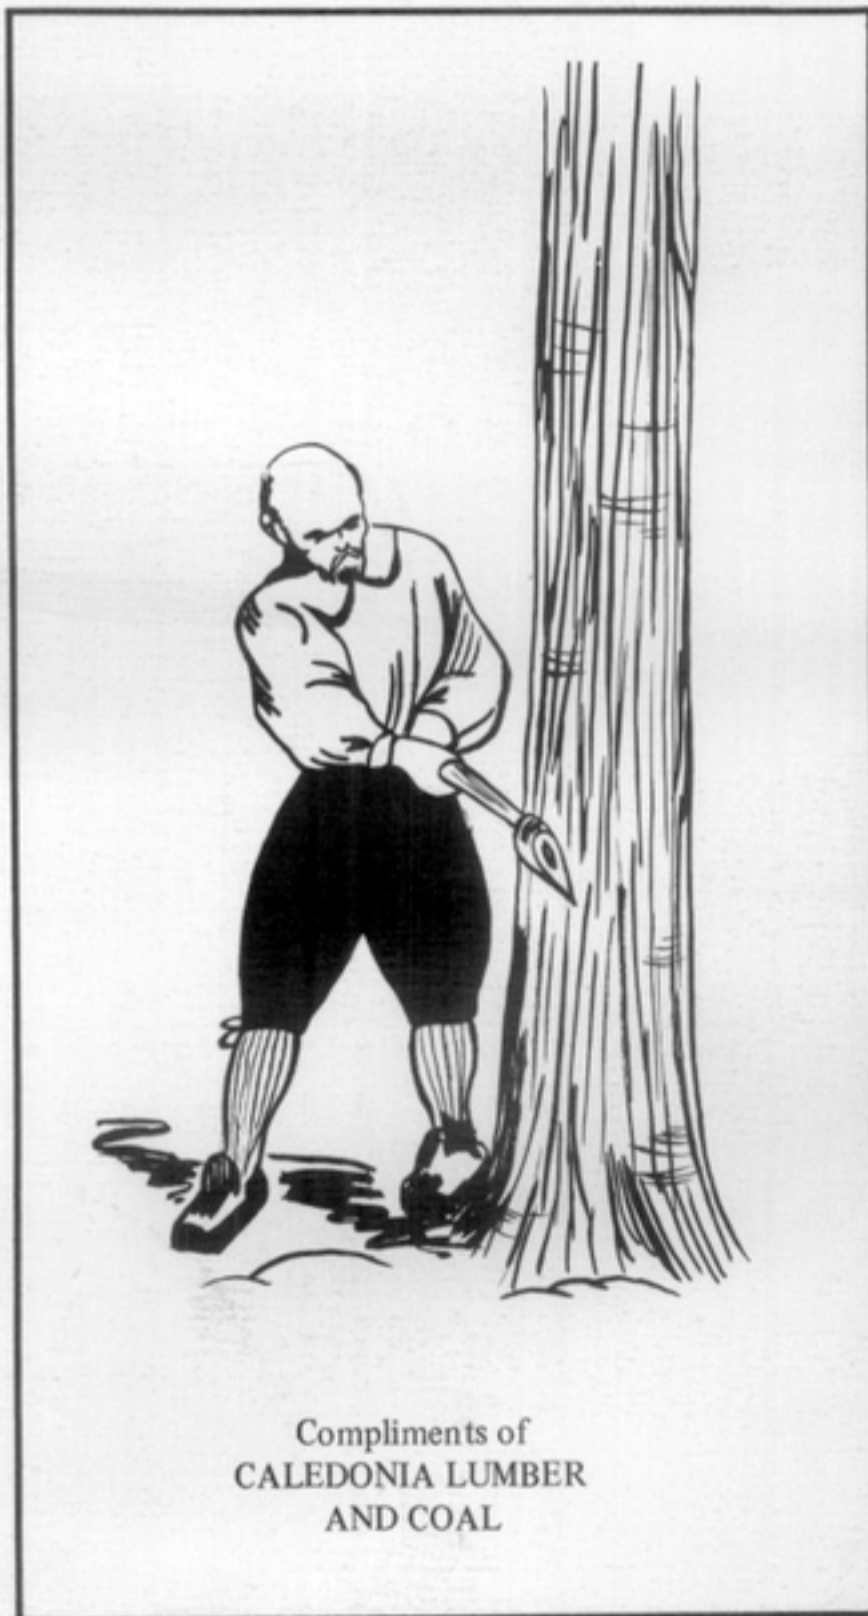

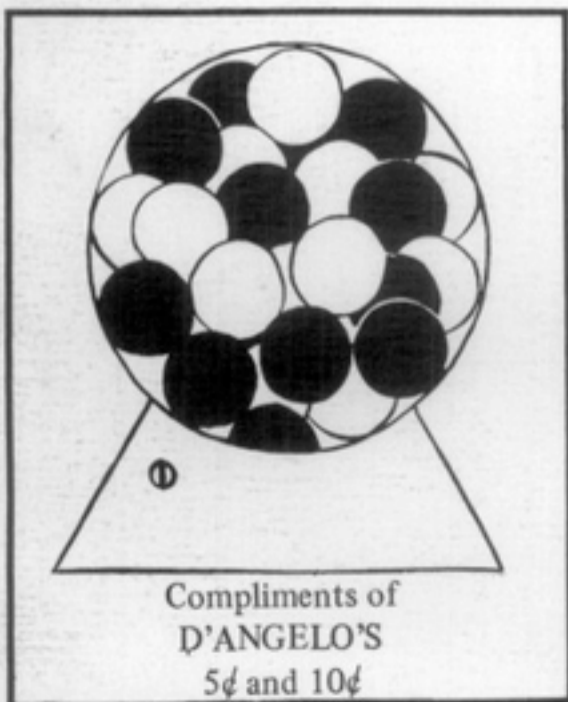

Right, top: Wrestlers line up to watch teammate wrestle. All the boys take particular interest each other's competitions.

The Red Raider's Wrestling Team is pinning and winning its way through the 1976 season. Seniors Tom Buckley, Robin Parker, Don Miller, Tim Hancy, Ken Troyer, T.R. Harmon and Tom Shaughnessy have done a great job this year. Robin Parker and Tom Buckley were triumphant in the Annual Christmas Tournament against strong powers from all over the state. Coach Gustainus and his grapplers anticipate a successful season.

Matmen Match Wits and Strength with Opponents

Opposite page: Tim Hancy easily breaks down his opponent's resistance on route to another victory.

Right: Diane Barton, Joan Bostwick and Betty Lou Rapone reflect the tenseness of the match in their facial expressions.

Below: Charles Robinson uses a unique hold combination to outwit his opponent.

JV Wrestling; standing left: Scott Langdon
Kevin O'Dell, Bill Baird, Coach Gustanis.
Row two kneeling: Gordon Crow, Doug
Nothnagle, Ed Crow, Pat Shaughnessy,

Varsity Wrestling; Standing left: Terry Baird,
Leo Jones, Don Millar, Theodore Harmon,
Tom Saughnessy, Coach Gustanis and manager

Kneeling: Charles Robinson, Tim Hancy,
Robin Parker, Tom Buckley, Ben Valente,
and Mike Murphy

