

Academy Wrestlers Cop Title; Two From Victor Are Champs

By BILL BOYLE

BROCKPORT — The Canandaigua Academy wrestling team gained its biggest victory of the year Saturday when it won the Class A Section 5 team trophy, offered this year for the first time in Sectional history.

Individually, CA team members copped three Section 5 Class A crowns and two overall Section 5 championships.

Gary Gustin, Dick Hadsell and Bob Bradshaw are Class A champs. Gustin and Hadsell are overall champions. Bradshaw lost on a judges' decision, taking second overall.

Steve Achilles of Geneva gained singular honors with Class A and overall championships.

Victor's Champs

Marty Brake and Penn Sheldon of Victor are Class B champions, and both are runners-up for overall championships. Dave Smith of Victor had a third in Class B and fifth overall.

Phelps had a second in Class B with Jim Kenny, three thirds with Dave Hendershot, Bill Nolder and Dick Beniamino, and a fourth with Jim Hefferon.

Kenny had fourth overall, while Hendershot, Nolder and Beniamino all had sixth places.

In gaining the Class A team trophy the Braves rolled to 58 team points. Their nearest rival was Corning East with 20 points. Mynderse, Pittsford and East Rochester all had 15 points.

Victor was third in Class B with 24 points. Phelps finished in sixth place with 17 points.

Overall honors were determined by matching Class A and Class B champions in each weight class. These champions will represent Section 5 Friday and Saturday at Syracuse in inter-sectional competition to determine state champions.

Gustin's 3 Wins

In gaining the 95-pound championship of Class A and Section 5, Gary Gustin was tremendous with three wins. No opponent scored on Gustin. He pinned Lou Borelli of Jefferson at 5:27 in the semi-finals, and then decided Time McEwan of Webster 4-0 for Class A championship. He decided Bob Gerhardt of Attica (Class B champ) for Section 5 championship honors.

Dick Hadsell, in going all the way, decided Walt Jones of Monroe 7-2 in the semi-finals and then Phil Serafine of Webster 3-2 for the championship in Class A. He met Marty Brake of Victor (Class B champion) in the finals, and it was a dandy.

Neither man scored in the opener. In the second period both men had two reversals and it was 4-4. Hadsell had a reversal in the third and one point riding time for a hard-earned 7-4 win. Both boys were tremendous.

Bob Bradshaw beat Emilio Di-Cotolado of Edison Tech 4-1 in the semi-finals, and then won in overtime 5-0 over Ben Brockway of Corning West.

Trailing 7-6 with seconds left, Bradshaw let Brockway escape and got an immediate takedown to get an 8-8 draw. In the overtime Bradshaw was master, getting a 5-0 win.

Overtime Match

His battle for Section 5 champion with Ron Tojowski of Pioneer was another classic. Leading 4-1, Bradshaw couldn't keep Tojowski from tying it up 4-4 at the buzzer. In overtime both men scored two points, but the decision by two judges and the referee was awarded to Tojowski.

CA's five other wrestlers gave good accounts of themselves. John Miller was fourth in Class A and seventh overall at 115; Tom Cook was great, finishing second in Class A and third overall at 148 pounds; Bruce Trumbull had a second in Class A and a fourth overall at 168.

Al Tiberio had a third in Class A and sixth overall at heavy-weight. Jim Hunt had a third in Class A and a fifth overall at unlimited.

Victor Did Well

With three wrestlers going into the semi-finals, Victor Central did a great job. Marty Brake gained the Class B shield with wins over Bob Fush of Warsaw 10-3, and Jim Rulliffson of Genesee 8-6. Then came the meeting with Dick Hadsell and Marty in the second-best 130-pounder in entire Section 5.

Penn Sheldon successfully defended his crown when he posted two big wins in the 135-pound class. In the semi-finals Sheldon beat a tough Bob Bentley of Lyndonville 12-9 in one of the most exciting matches of the day. In the finals Sheldon decisively beat Jim Backus of Livonia 4-0.

In the overall finals he met Geneva's Steve Achilles, the only man to pin a defeat on him this year. Achilles made it two wins as he decided Sheldon, who ranks No. 2 in Section 5 wrestling.

Poetic Justice

Dave Smith, Victor's fine heavy-weight, drew Howie Burd of Attica in the semi-finals. One year ago Smith beat Burd for the Sectional crown, ending a 19-match winning streak. Burd just have been thinking of poetic justice as he ended Smith's identical 59-0 win streak with a 14-9 decision. Burd went on to win the Class B crown, while Smith, due to pairings, ended up third.

CHAMPIONSHIP SMILES — Section 5 wrestling chairman Don Quinn of East Rochester presents team trophy to Coach Weldon Canough as Section 5 champions Dick Hadsell and Gary Gustin smile approval. CA scored 58 team points to win the award.

One of the best matches of the evening came when Smith and CA's Al Tiberio clashed for the fifth and sixth sectional rating. Smith won a thrilling 3-1 overtime decision over Tiberio. The men battled to a 4-4 draw in regulation time, with both men getting an escape and then Smith getting a takedown near the end to win it.

Steve Achilles won his crown at 135 pounds when he beat a tough Joe Whittaker of Monroe 2-0 in the semi-finals and then Rich Pace of Corning West 2-1 for the championship. His win over Penn Sheldon gave him the overall Section 5 championship.

All three area men, Gustin, Hadsell and Achilles, will travel to Syracuse this Friday for the first round matches in state championships. Coach Weldon Canough was exuberant, "They were magnificent. To win this first big wrestling extravaganza speaks for the fine spirit displayed all year by the boys. They deserved the championship."

Saints Win 2 Games Here Over Weekend

The St. Mary's Saints rolled to a pair of wins over the weekend, beating Holy Rosary of Rochester 41-28 Friday night and St. Patrick's of Seneca Falls 44-43 Sunday.

Holy Rosary, No. 3 team in Rochester, was easy prey. Joe Chiappone and Steve Curtin, hitting well from the outside, were too much for the Rochester five. Chiappone had 15 and Curtin 21 to more than outscore the visitors.

Saints:	G	F	T
Chiappone	7	1	15
Curtin	9	3	21
D. Kingston	0	1	1
Valvano	2	0	4

H. Rosary	6	10	4 6 26

Different Contest
 Yesterday's game with St. Patrick's was a thriller all the way. Both clubs handled the ball well, but Dave Kingston made the big difference for the Saints. He had 27 rebounds, controlling the boards on both ends and scoring 19 points. Chiappone, Curtin, and Nick Valvano handled the ball well for the Saints. Valvano, replacing Bob Ryan, out with the flu, has been a worthy replacement.

In addition to Kingston's 19 points, Curtin and Chiappone both had 12 points. Mick Barbi had 15 for St. Patrick's. The Saints now have a 13-4 record and virtually assured themselves of a CYO berth for the tournament in Rochester in two weeks.
