Great Hour of Sharing Will be Observed in Comm. Church Sun.

This Sunday, March 28 at the United Community Church a special offering will be received toward a fund known as the "One Great Hour of Sharing." In the Catholic Church it is called "The Bishop's Fund" and among Jewish congregations "The Passover Offering." In most Protestant churches it is known as "One Great Hour of Sharing."

More than $8,000,000 will be necessary to sustain the work and the projects supported by these appeals. Thirty-six Protestant communions are cooperating in this concerted attempt to help heal these open sores of a sick world.

In Korea, nine million people, widows, orphans, homeless and the helpless are in desperate need. In India and Pakistan drouth conditions have brought suffering from food shortages. In the Near East, nearly a million Arab refugees are barely kept alive by meager doles while in Europe hungry persons fleeing from behind the Iron Curtain have swelled the total of uprooted people in that war-torn continent to more than 11 million.

Among all these unhappy millions Communist agents are trying to sow the seeds of discontent and build up the false hope that this godless ideology will bring them Utopia. One of the best ways to combat Communism is to support liberally this appeal. It is highly endorsed by the highest officials in the nation and churches, including the President, the Chief Justice and
