

Wrestlers grapple way into States

Kemp, Pittinaro, Ventress advance

A group of Section V's best wrestlers answered last calls to qualify for next week's state tournament.

Pittsford's Chris Kemp, East Rochester's Keith Pittinaro and Spencerport's Adam Ventress each pulled out last second wins in regulation or overtime triumphs at last night's SuperSectionals.

A standing-room only crowd at Webster High watched all of the action.

All 15 weight class champions qualified to wrestle in the New York State Public High School Athletic Association next Friday and Saturday at the Onondaga War Memorial in Syracuse.

Spencerport's Jason DeBruin remained undefeated this season, pinning James Chase-Wegner of South Seneca in 1:39 in the 135 final.

Brockport senior Mike O'Keefe won the third and final match-up against East High's Shchransky Carr, 6-5 for the 275 slot. Both wrestlers pinned each other in their meetings at Canandaigua and in last week's sectionals.

Spencerport senior Bill Jacoutot's brilliant season was brought to an end by Tom Hall of Hornell in the 119 semifinals. Hall scored twice on double-leg take-downs, to take leads of 3-0 then 5-1.

A state champion in 1995-96, it was Jacoutot's first loss in over 30 matches this winter.

This was the last chance for Pittinaro and Kemp to represent Section V at the states, since they are seniors.

Pittinaro beat Brighton's Marvin Brown 3-1 in overtime in the 130-pound final. It was the fourth time the two have faced each other this season, with Brown winning the last meeting during a dual meet.

An escape in the third period by Pittinaro tied the match at 1-1. Brown had received a warning for stalling during the bout, but when he shot after Pittinaro, the East Rochester junior was waiting for him.

"He took kind of a desperation shot," Pittinaro said. "I got a headlock and just shucked him by."

Pittinaro lost a very close match to Spencerport's Bill Jacoutot at the Monroe County Championships recently. A last-minute takedown attempt by Pittinaro missed by inches.

"It's kind of a motivational thing," Pittinaro said. "You can't put it in the referee's hands."

Kemp, now 44-4, edged Spencerport's Terrance Green 6-4 in the 125 finals. Ahead 4-3 with 30 seconds to go, Kemp chose to let Green get to his feet. Then Kemp was able to shuffle behind Green with 10 seconds to go to win.

"Every year I've been physically ready," said Kemp, now 178-22 in his high school career. "I just had to get right in my head."

Ventress snapped Webster's Jim Ziegler into a position where he could score the winning points with about five seconds left in his 7-5 victory in the 145 final.

Greece Olympia's Don Carlo-Clauss handled his nerves before beating Newark's Tom Kelly to take the 140 final, 10-5. He trailed 2-0 early but an escape and a takedown put him ahead for good.

"I was really nervous before my match," Carlo-Clauss said. "It just took me a little while to get into the match." □
