Wrestling

Coach Earl Fuller's wrestlers completed the season in winning form, capturing twelve victories out of fifteen matches. The varsity wrestlers started the year by thrashing Western Reserve and Case Institute. They also were victorious over Ithaca, Oswego State, Winona, U. S. Merchant Marine Academy, and Baldwin-Wallace.

The wrestlers were captained by Jerry Huffman, who had an 11-1 record including four pins in the 147 pound division. At 123 pounds the team had Charley Missakian, sporting an 8-2 record. Competition was offered in this weight class by Bob Bryan. Wrestling at 130 pounds were Doug Cullen and Roger Aceto. Cullen was hampered by injuries to his hand and elbow, while the versatile Aceto was a good utility man.

Ramon West, wrestling at 137 pounds, compiled a 10-2 record. He defeated Clyde Simpson, who placed second in the 4 I's (Individual Invitational Interstate Intercollegiate) Tournament of 1957-58, during the match with Baldwin-Wallace. Pressure man Jim Kennedy wrestled at 157 pounds, and Dick Zoyhowski wrestled in the 167 pound class. These two play-makers wrestled one weight class above their normal weight, to afford the team strength in the heavier classes.

At 177 pounds, the Grapplers had Bob Cully, and the heavyweight division was represented by Ken Klaus. Klaus gave the varsity team their first real heavyweight in many years.

Last Christmas the men participated in the Wilkes-Barre Tournament at Pennsylvania. The team placed sixth in a field of forty. Ramon West was RIT's standout, finishing fourth in the 137 pound class. On March 13th and 14th the matmen traveled to Case Institute to take part in the 4 I's Tournament. The Niagara AAU Tournament was held at RIT on April 3rd and 4th, to complete an eventful season.

Freshman Wrestling

The freshmen wrestlers, under the careful handling of Frosh Coach Dick Moyer, split their matches during the season, finishing with a 3-3 record. The jayvees downed Cortland, Oswego State, and Alfred Tech; but lost to Ithaca, Lockhaven, and Cornell University.

The wrestlers were led by team captain Dave Zoyhowski at 177 pounds. The other members of the team were Paul Rode, 123; Louis Rendano, 130; David Shirley, 137; Dan Winger, 147; Joe Andreano, 157; and Bert Salk in the heavyweight class. Zoyhowski, who was the outstanding freshman wrestler, led his teammates in the wins and pins department. He achieved a 6-0 record with four pins to his credit. Winger was a close second with a 5-1 mark and three pins. Rode trailed the pair with a 3-3 record and two pins.

The West Point Invitational for freshmen was a two-day event, held on March 13th and 14th at West Point. RIT's jay-vee team performed well against the tough competition. Such well known schools as Navy, Penn State, Rutgers, Harvard, and Cornell participated in the contest.

All you have to do is kick his arms and you've got a takedown.
