Individual Match Scoring

Position:

Neutral- On the feet or on the knees, with contestants facing each other, or when each is free of the others control.

Top- Position of advantage when one contestant has opponent under control.

Bottom- Position of contestant who is controlled by opponent.

Object of Each Match:

1. To gain a fall by pinning an opponent, or
2. To gain a decision by out-wrestling an opponent when a is not possible.

Length and Conduct of Matches:

Matches shall consist of three two-minute periods. The first two minute period shall start from the neutral position with both contestants on their feet. A fall in any period terminates the match. If neither contestant secures a fall in the first two-minute period, contestants are put in the "Referee's Position on the Mat" with one contestant in the top position and the other in the bottom position, with no rest being allowed. The third period is started the same as the second with the contestants' positions reversed.

To Win By A Fall:

Pin falls only shall count. (Flying or rolling falls shall not be considered.) Any part of both shoulders held in contact with the mat for a Referee's silent count of two seconds constitutes a fall. A fall shall not be awarded when one or both shoulders of the defensive wrestler are off the mat.

To Win By A Decision:

When no fall has been secured, the referee shall award the match to the contestant who scored the greater number of points, but if the points are equal in a tournament there shall be an overtime period, to decide the better wrestler. Points are scored as follows:

2 points, Takedown - Gaining a position of advantage from the neutral position on the feet.

2 points, Reversal, - Gaining a position of advantage from the bottom.

1 point, Escape - Gaining a neutral position from the bottom

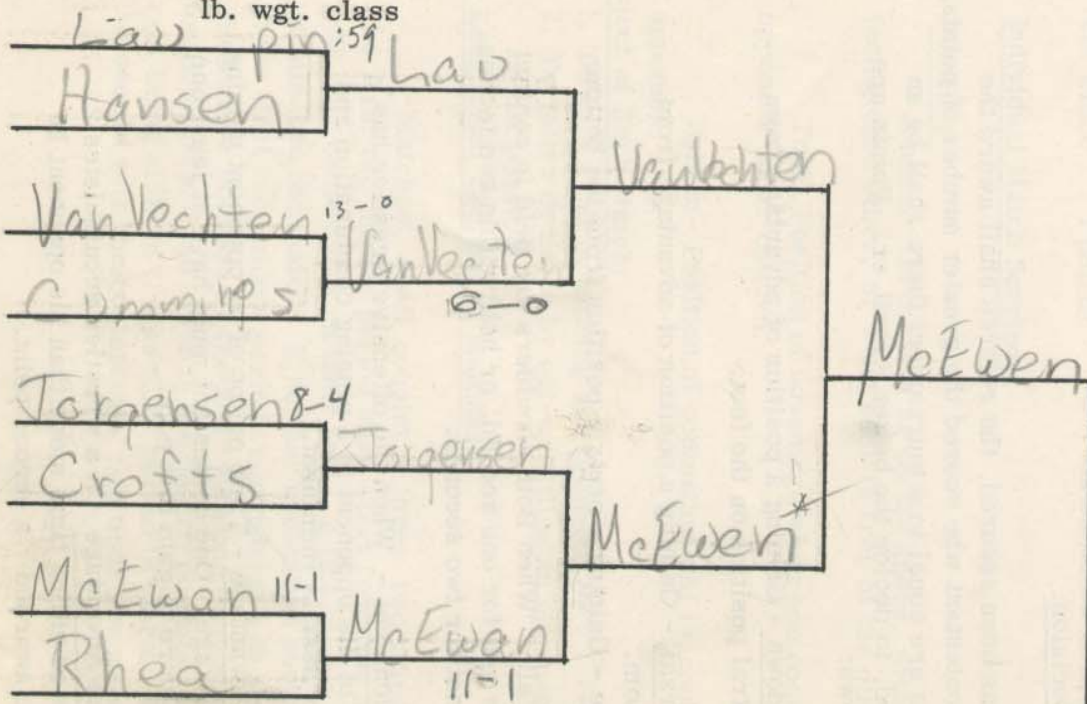

3 points Near Fall - When Both shoulders are held in contact with the mat for one second, or held within two inches of the mat for two seconds.

2 points, Predicament - When the offensive wrestler has control of his opponent is a pinning combination and a fall or near is imminent.

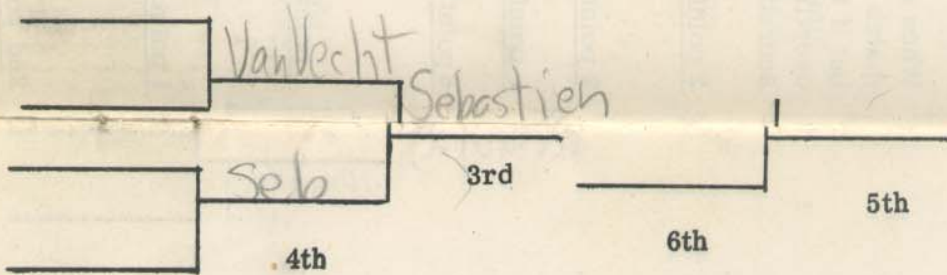

1 point, Time Advantage - Time on top of an opponent gaining the advantage. One contestant must have at least one minute more to gain this point.

2nd point, Time Advantage - If a wrestler accumulates 2 minutes of riding time more than his opponent he shall be awarded a second point.
