IRONDEQUOIT INVADES NEXT SATURDAY

One week from tonight, arch-rival Irondequoit High will invade the EHS gymnasium for an 8pm meet (6:30 J.V.) which will determine the County Western Division Championship.

Eastridge is defending champion. Both teams go into the meet with 7-0 league records, though i.h.s. has 2 non-league losses.

Key matches pair Bill Prince with John Olesiuk, Jim Nowak or Tom Scalzo with Gary St. James, and Dan Gorski with Gary Robinson. Dick Duncan vs. Craig Bollinger could also be a very important bout in the meet.

NEWS and NOTES

We're sorry that this meet's program is a lot smaller than usual, but it's a necessity because we want an extra-big one for the all-important Irondequoit meet 1 week from tonight. The money collected for this meet's program goes into financing our special i.h.s. issue, which should include many new innovations & surprises.

Brighton is in 3rd place in the County Eastern division. The only losses the Barons suffered were to East Rochester and Rush-Henrietta. Peter Lewis is unbeaten in dual meets this season. His match today with Bill Prince is expected to be a big highlight of the days activities.

On Monroe County Wrestling Day (February 10 at Eastridge) the Lancers will meet either ER or Rush. Irondequoit will meet whichever of the two Eastridge does not. Brighton returns to our sacred halls to battle Spencerport.

The Eastridge JVs defeated Brighton Wednesday afternoon on the Barons' mats. The meet went down to heavyweight. Paul Amico gained a draw, and the Lancers (being 3 points ahead prior to the heavyweight clash) emerged victorious. Winners for coach Bob Edner's squad included Ron Cali, Chipper Law, Tom Polsinelli, Gester, Jack Romano, Bob Turshetti while Amico had his tie.

COUNTY MAT STANDINGS:

MEMORY LANE

Below: Eastridge's first high school All-American, with numerous other honors, Ron Rauscher. Article from an old Eastridge ORACLE.

Ron Rauscher

A mighty might in every sense of the word is the Eastridge Wrestling team co-captain, Ron Rauscher. Little Ron is a terror on the mats and has completed an amazing four year record of 49-3. Ronnie has been twice a winner in the Eastridge Christmas Tournament and this year he hopes to win the Section 5 Championship. The small (5'6", 123 lb.) but powerful senior is one of the most powerful wrestlers in the county. He is very strong for his size, extremely agile and is well versed in the intricacies of wrestling. Ron likes all sports
