ED JOSEPH, left, and PETE LOCKE have turned in some impressive performances for Eastridge this winter. Ed is at 179 pounds while Locke goes in at 134.

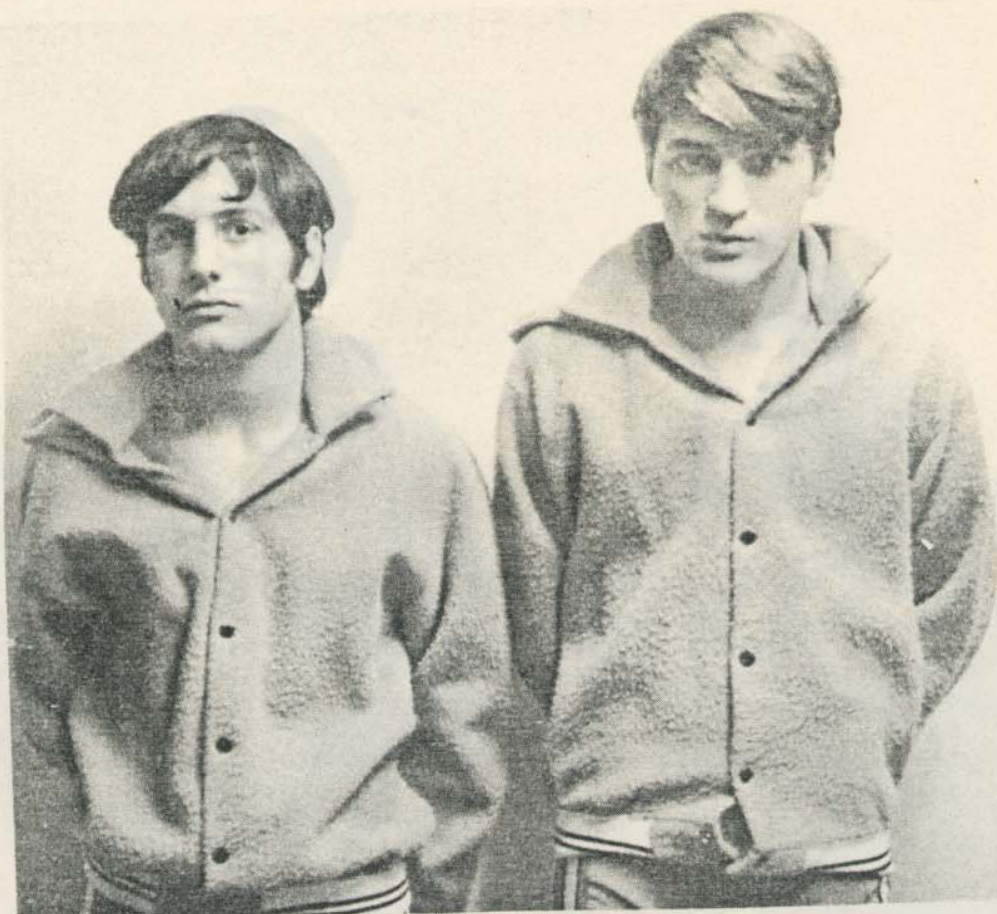

REX DeVALDER, left, and STAN SHARP have been doing well for Eastridge this winter. DeValder, a 100 pounder, took third in the recent Webster Invitational. Sharp, a new - comer to the varsity lineup, shows a lot of promise. Stan competes up around the 157 - 169 weight classes.

Two successful lightweights for EHS this year are county champion DAVE POLSINELLI, left, and SCOTT SULLI. Polsinelli is unconquered in dual meets and has grappled at 107 and 114 pounds. Sulli has also done well at 100, 107, and 114 lbs.

PAUL NOWAK, left, and RAY JOSEPH have big matches tonight. Nowak has been doing very well at both 140 and 147 pounds this season while Joseph is unbeaten in the league as a heavyweight. If both win, Eastridge will be in good shape tonight against the formidable Comets. Both teams are unbeaten in the league.

JIM POLSINELLI, left, and JIM PRINCE were both winners in last month's Eastridge Wrestling Tournament. They compete mainly at 114 pounds and 121 pounds, respectively. Polsinelli is a defending Monroe County champion.
