

Braves, Geneva Each Have Winner In Webster Tourney

By BILL BOYLE

WEBSTER—Canandaigua Academy has a sectional champion as Tony Addante won his shield in the finals of the wrestling championships held at Webster High School Saturday afternoon and evening. Addante will reign as the 112-pound champ until next year's finals.

Canandaigua went to the semi-finals with four wrestlers: Addante at 112, Bruce Johnson at 126, Gary Carpenter at 137 and Dick Davis at 165. In the afternoon matches, Addante and Johnson survived to make the finals while Carpenter and Davis were eliminated.

Rochester City wrestlers dominated the meet as they gained seven championships. The Finger Lakes and Monroe County each had five and the Southern Tier got but one.

'Tough Tournament'

It was a tough tournament with the Finger Lakes meeting Monroe County and Rochester City meeting the Southern Tier in the afternoon matches.

Canandaigua had Tony Addante beating Brian Kayser of Irondequoit, 4-3, to gain the finals. Bruce Johnson beat Dana Jones of Spencerport, 5-2, coming from a 2-point deficit in the final period to get the win.

Gary Carpenter found Ray Wallman a tough wrestler at 127 pounds and lost to the Pittsford boy, 4-2, in a tight match. Dick Davis met the toughest wrestler on the county team in Don Gasnik of Brighton and lost a 6-0 decision in the Monroe County champ.

Geneva's Finals

Geneva High went into the semi-finals with seven men and emerged with three for the finals. Steve Coleman of Brockport beat Larry Principio at 95 pounds, 4-2. Chuck Principio pinned John Krehling of CA's SECTIONAL CHAMPION -- Pete DeBattis, Section 5 wrestling chairman, presents Tony Addante of CA with his shield signifying the Section 5 championship in the 112-pound class. Addante is the first Academy champ since Bob Downy won a shield in 1961. Tournament was Saturday in Webster.

Webster at 5:31. Joe DeFelice of East Rochester decided Pete Tichenor 7-3 at 133 pounds. Jim Consaul, East Rochester, pinned Ted Glass in 4:47 at 138 pounds.

Louis Ray decided Frank Alkofer of Gates-Chili, 5-4. Ken Brooks of Gates-Chili beat Dave Van Gordon, 6-3.

Dick Moore pinned John Alissi of Pittsford at 4:47. Alissi also had an undefeated season going into this match.

Takedown Won

Addante did a masterful job in the finals as he met Ken Wheeler of Corning Free Academy. Addante got a takedown in the first period, the only points scored in the match and hung on to get the shield for CA. Tony was in command all the way and was a happy youngster when his hand was raised in victory.

Bruce Johnson ran into a tartar in John Lacognina of East High and lost a 2-0 decision. Lacognina got a reverse in the second period and Johnson couldn't counter although he gave it all he had.

A Near Upset

For Geneva, Chuck Principio looked as though he might pull the tourney upset with a win over last year's sectional champion Bob McFarland, but the Rochester wrestler got an escape in the final few seconds to win a close-fought 3-2 victory.

McFarland who figured to be a shoo-in for another sectional shield got a real surprise from the Geneva wrestler.

Louis Ray met Roy Washington of Monroe in the finals. Washington, well ahead on points, planned Ray in 5:51 for the crown.

Dick Moore met Leo Fusilli of East High for the unlimited crown. Moore had a takedown in the first period, an escape in the second to lead 3-0. Fusilli came up with a reverse in the final period and gave the Finger Lakes footer near heart failure as he almost pulled it out with a predicament but Moore fought him off to take the crown for the Panthers and the Finger Lakes.
