WRESTLING

Rules and Scoring of Wrestling

POSITIONS:

Neutral - On the feet or on the knees, with contestants facing each other, or when each is free of the other's control.

Top - - - Position of advantage when one contestant has opponent under control.

Bottom - Position of contestant who is controlled by opponent.

OBJECT OF EACH MATCH:

1. To gain a fall by pinning an opponent, or
2. To gain a decision by out-wrestling an opponent when a fall is not possible.

LENGTH AND CONDUCT OF MATCHES:

Matches shall consist of three two-minute periods. The first two-minute period shall start from the neutral position with both contestants on their feet. A fall in any period terminates the match. If neither contestant secures a fall in the first two-minute period, contestants are put in the "Referee's Position on the Mat" with one contestant in the top position and the other in the bottom position, with no rest being allowed. The third period is started the same as the second with the contestant's positions reversed.

TO WIN BY A FALL:

Any part of both shoulders held in contact with the mat for a Referee's silent count of two seconds constitutes a fall. A fall shall not be awarded when one shoulder or head of the defensive wrestler are off the mat.

TO WIN BY A DECISION:

If no fall has been secured, the referee shall award the match to the contestant who scored the greater number of points, but if the points are equal in a tournament there shall be an overtime period, to decide the better wrestler. Points are scored as follows:

2 Points, Takedown - Gaining a position of advantage from the neutral position on the feet.

2 Points, Reversal - Gaining a position of advantage from the bottom.

1 Point, Escape - -- Gaining a neutral position from the bottom.

3 Points, Near Fall - When both shoulders are held in contact with the mat for one second, or held within two inches of the mat for two seconds.

1 Point, Predicament - When the offensive wrestler has control of his opponent in a pinning combination and a fall or near fall is imminent.

1 Point, Time Advantage - A contestant is awarded one point for accumulating one minute more riding time than his opponent.
