

City's Wrestlers Win 9 Titles In Section 5 Test

Special to The Democrat and Chronicle

CORNING—Rochester wrestlers won nine of the 12 titles and Monroe County matmen picked up two more championships in the Section 5 finals held at Corning Glass Center here last night.

All five of the Madison High School grapplers, unbeaten team champions of the Interscholastic League, who made the semifinal round here yesterday afternoon sailed through both rounds of competition.

West and East added one champ each, Franklin two and Eastridge and Webster one each, all but shutting out the Finger Lakes and Steuben County Leagues. Only non-Monroe County victor was Neal Pipe of Corning Free Academy in the 180-pound class. He beat Geneva's Dick Post in last night's final.

Both rounds yesterday played to sellout crowds of about 800.

In a stinging upset, Frank Oliveri of East decisioned CFA's Robert Thurber at 133 pounds. Oliveri had been beaten by Madison's Mel McDowell in quarter-final action, but the Rochester City champ had to drop out of competition because of a back injury.

Bob McFarland of Madison started the run for the Wilson Parkers at 95 pounds with a 4-0 win over Webster's John Krehling. Other Madison winners were defending champion Willie Williams with a 2:44 pin at 103 pounds; Jerry Baker, 127-pounder; Charles McGowan, who beat East Rochester's Dan Gurecki at 145; and Greenard Poles, unlimited class, who edged CFA's Bob Turner, 2-1, thanks to a time-advantage on an escape.

Dale Kenyon put the Monroe County League on the board with a 7-3 decision of East Rochester's Frank Megale at 120 pounds and Tim Dougherty grabbed a share of the glory for Eastridge with a 1:54 pin of Newark's Tom McLaren at 165 pounds.

West made it on the strength of Ray Cole's 5-4 decision of Brockport's Dick Avery in the 154-pound class and Franklin champions were Wonder Scott (who beat East Rochester Frank Megale) at 120 pounds and 138-pounder Nate Turner, who beat another East Rochester boy, Jim Ranscoe.

Not one member of the Interscholastic League squad which gained the finals was beaten. Seven County League wrestlers won semifinal round matches, including three members of the champion East Rochester team—not one of whom could pick up a sectional title.

Tom Vergo, the Bomber heavyweight, was beaten for only the second time in four years in the semifinals.
