

Section Five Wrestling Titles Elude Most Finger Lake Matmen

By BILL BOYLE

EAST ROCHESTER — Canandaigua Academy and Finger Lakes wrestlers didn't fare too well in the Section 5 championships held Saturday at East Rochester High School.

Only Sectional winners from the Finger Lakes were Steve Ritter and Bill Simson of Mynderse. Ritter won the 154-pound crown and Simson the 180-pound championship.

All three CA wrestlers were eliminated in the semi-final round held in the afternoon.

Bob Hughner of CA met a far-Kostecke of East Rochester in the semi and got a take down early in the first period.

Kostecke escaped and Bradshaw led 2-1. Bradshaw took top and had Kostecke for a minute when the East Rochester boy reversed and made it 3-2. He also had a predicament in the third period to beat Bradshaw 5-2.

... And Another

Bradshaw also lost to Doug Andrews of Corning East in the consolation round, 5-2.

Bob Hubber of CA met a far-far in Gary DiBella of Pittsford and although he went all the way, trying every second, he dropped a 13-1 decision to DiBella.

Hughner also lost his consolation round to Ralph Pizzo of Edison, 4-2, another tough battle.

Al Tiberio wrestled Section 5 champion Gary Wager of Gates-Chili and was pinned in 3:03.

Took Top Honors

Wager went on to take the championship by pinning Casper Pizzo of Edison for his 20th pin in 21 starts this season. Tiberio won his Consolation Round match with a forfeit over Paul Plumley of Corning West.

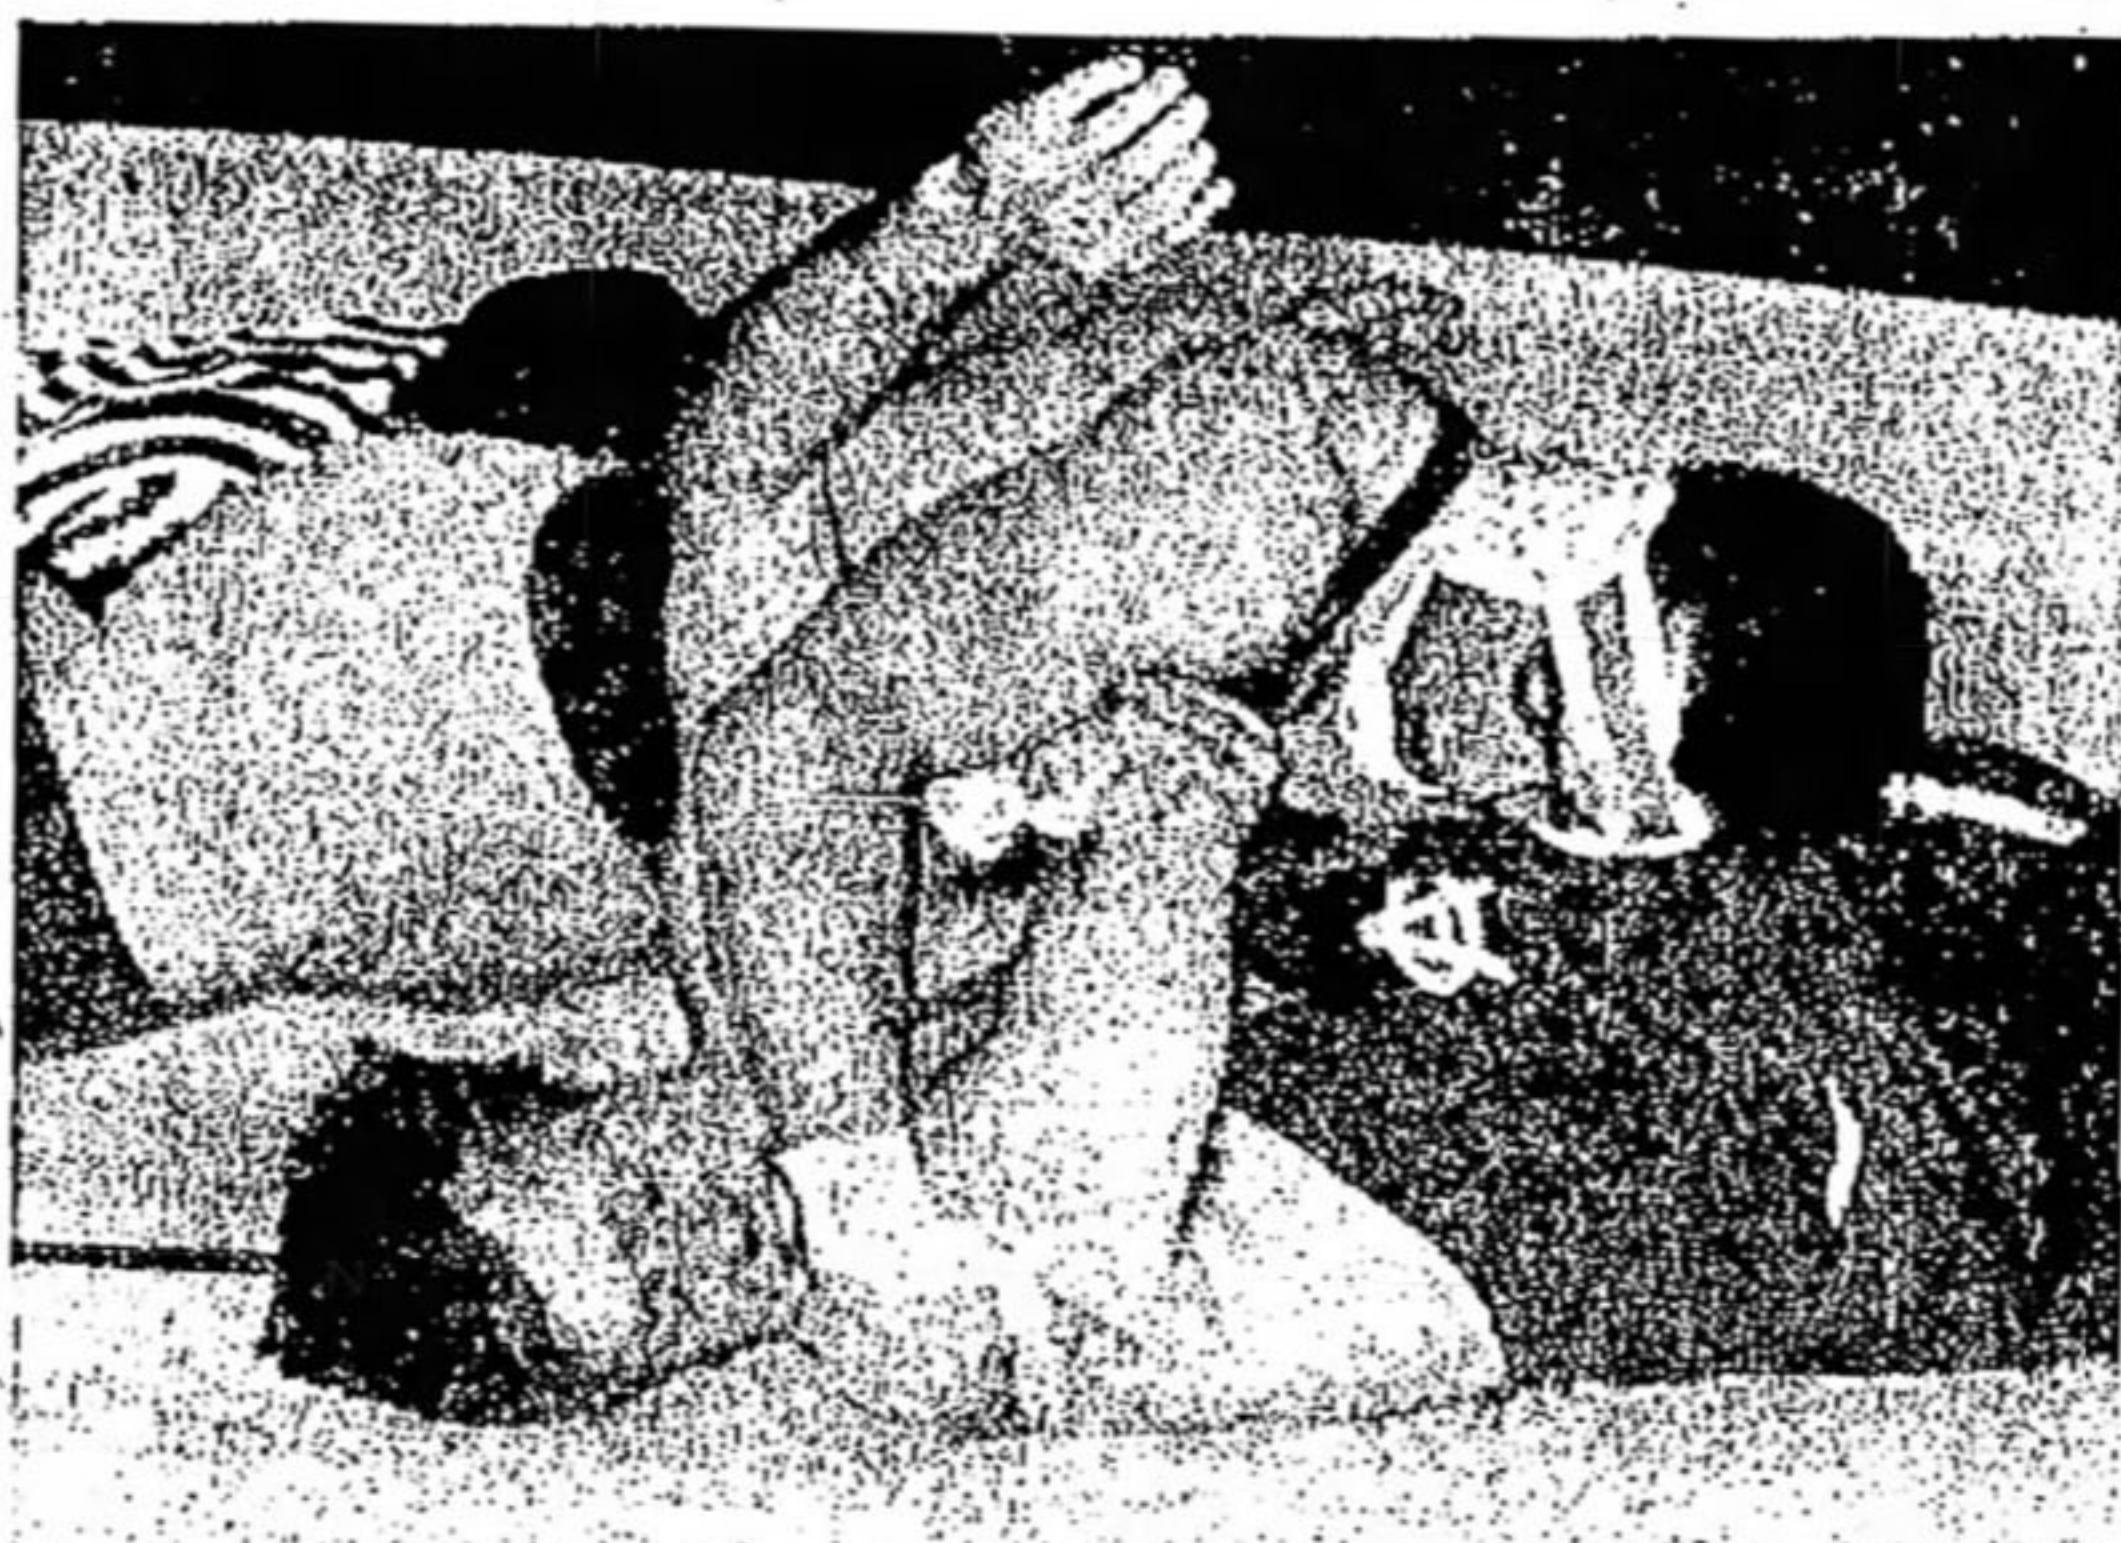

The Finger Lakes had five men make the finals. Jim Rogers of Mynderse beat Dick Grabaugh of Rush-Henrietta in the semi-finals and then lost to Gary Schreiber of Corning East in the finals at 123 pounds.

Chuck Breese of Waterloo won his semi-final match at 148 pounds over Mert Bernabi of Spencerport and then fell victim to Gary Kreilly of Dansville in the finals.

Mynderse Champ

Steve Ritter of Mynderse won a close 1-0 decision over Dan Lanzzone of East Rochester and then on to win the championship in the 154-pound class with a 4-1 decision over Robert Rosier of Madison. It was Rosier's first loss of the season.

Bill Simson of Mynderse really pulled himself up by the bootstraps in his semi-final match with Ernie DiBella of Pittsford in the 180 pound class. With the match knotted at 1-1, Simson got a takedown in the last nine seconds to win a 3-1 match. He then went on to win the championship defeating Rocco Pierri of Corning East 7-2.

TRAIL'S END — Although he appears pinned by Gary DiBella of Pittsford, Bob Hughner of CA fought back to escape the pin but lost a 13-1 decision in the semi-finals of Section 5 in the 165-pound class Saturday in East Rochester. Gary Wager of Gates-Chili was just too heavy for a greatly outweighed Al Tiberio of CA who was pinned in 3:03 of their heavyweight match in Saturday's semi-finals. Wager went on to the sectional crown.

Terry LaBelle of Waterloo won his semi-final match with Dave Jensen of Pittsford with a 3-1 decision but lost to Charlie Belle of Edison 9-6 in the finals.
