

★ King seeks career win record

Canandaigua's Marty King needs one win at this weekend's state wrestling tournament in Syracuse to become the state's all-time career wins leader.

~~He needs four wins in the 126-pound weight class to become a two-time state champ.~~

While King-watching may be the main attraction at the 22nd annual Intersectional Wrestling Tournament, four other Canandaigua wrestlers and one Williamson grappler will represent local teams and Section 5 in the two-day affair.

The action begins tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. at the Syracuse War Memorial and continues Saturday when semifinals will begin at 10 a.m.

King, a senior who is 33-0 this season, has 164 wins in his career, tying him with Tony Cotroneo, formerly of Irondequoit. King won the 119-pound crown last year, and he will begin his quest for the 126-pound title with a first-round match against Willie Paro of Clifton Fine (Section 10).

Joining King in representing local schools at the states are Mike Locagnato, Butch Hibbard, Paul Lamphier and Joe Hibbard, all of Canandaigua, and C.C. Grant of Williamson.

Locagnato (32-5 this season) drew a first-round bye in the 91-pound class. In the second round, he will face the winner of the Kevin Carter (Saranac, Section 7) vs. Tom Butcher (Island Trees, 8) match.

Butch Hibbard, a junior, was a runner-up last year at the 98-pound weight class, and he will return at the same class this year. Hibbard (32-3) will face Pat Nolan (27-5) of Section 9's Tappan Zee in a first round match.

Lamphier also was a runner up last year in the 105-pound weight class. The junior will have a tough road this year in the same weight class, as it is loaded with two defending state champs — Rich Pidgeon of Locust Valley (Section 8), who won at 91 last year, and Bret Penrith of Union-Endicott (Section 4), who won at 105 last year.

Lamphier's (29-4) first-round match will be against Fred Varin of Beekmantown (Section 7).

At 112, Canandaigua's senior Joe Hibbard starts out with a bang as he meets the defending 112-pound champ in the first round. Hibbard will face Jeff Clark of Voorheesville (Section 2) who is undefeated this season and is 148-9-1 in his career.

Local interest won't be spurred again until the 215-pound weight class where Williamson's Grant, a senior, will compete.

Grant, who is 31-1, drew a bye in the first round. In the second round, he will meet either Kevin Keane from St. Anthony (Catholic High School Athletic Association) or Jeff Ellis of Clarence (Section 6). Keane and Ellis are both undefeated and will meet in a first-round bout.

(The Associated Press)

College football apparently has nowhere to turn in the wake of a federal court decision that could clear the way for professional leagues to sign players who still have eligibility remaining.

But the feeling seemed to be that football, like college basketball, will survive its latest setback. And unscrupulous agents, rather than the United States Football League, emerged as the college game's major nemesis.

The decision that everyone expected finally came Wednesday when U.S. District Judge Laughlin Waters ruled in Los Angeles that the USFL's rule barring its teams from signing underclassmen constituted a group boycott in violation of the antitrust laws.

"I don't expect college football to suffer as a result of this," said Eugene P. O'Connor, attorney for the American Football Coaches Association, which met with USFL officials last year to resolve the problem following the New Jersey Generals' early signing of Georgia junior Herschel Walker.

Waters ruled in a suit brought by Bob Boris, a former punter for the University of Arizona who now plays for the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws. Boris was prohibited from signing with a USFL team last year because he had college eligibility remaining even though he dropped

Four CA wrestlers alive

SYRACUSE — Four Canandaigua wrestlers are still alive in the winners' bracket after last night's first two rounds of the state high school wrestling championships.

The four still have a shot at individual titles, while two other local wrestlers lost in the second round but still have a chance at third place.

In the team scoring, Section 5 leads going into today's semifinals and finals with 84 points. Section 5 has a total of eight wrestlers still alive for championships. The defending team champ, Section 11 (Suffolk County) is in second place with 74 points, while Section 3 (Syracuse) is in third with 68½.

Individually, the highlight of last night's action came in the first round of the 126-pound weight class, where Canandaigua's Marty King pinned Willie Faro of Clifton-Fine (Section 10) in 1:42 for his 165th career victory, which is a new state record.

King, a senior who won the 119-pound title last year, raised his record to 35-0 this season in the second round by pinning Lee Staulters of Ballston Spa (Section 2) in 1:53.

At 91, Canandaigua junior Mike Locagnato drew a first round bye and then decisioned Tom Butcher of Island Trees (Section 8) in the second round, 7-4. Locagnato is now 33-5 this season.

At 98, the Braves' Butch Hibbard won both first- and second-round matches. Hibbard, a junior, pinned Pat Nolan of Tappan Zee (Section 9) in 5:15 and then decisioned Ed Dusharm of Gouverneur (Section 10), 17-4. Hibbard is now 34-3.

Paul Lamphier, another Canandaigua junior, won his first match at 105 by pinning Fred Varin of Beekmantown (Section 7) in 5:20. In the second round, Lamphier decisioned Phil Mosso of Amsterdam (Section 2), in 5:20 to raise his season's record to 31-4.

At 112, senior Joe Hibbard lost an 8-0 decision to Jeff Clark of Voorheesville (Section 2) in the first round. Clark, the defending 112-pound state champion, owns the Section Two career mark for wins with 150.

At 215, Williamson's senior C.C. Grant drew a first round bye before losing to Jeff Ellis of Clarence (Section 6) by a pin in 2 minutes, 44 seconds. Ellis is now 37-0 this season.

Both Joe Hibbard and Grant are still alive in the wrestlebacks and have a shot for third-place finishes.

Wrestling got under way at 10 this morning, with finals expected to start about 8 p.m. at the War Memorial in Syracuse.

Also yesterday, it was announced that Augustine was named to Second to the second team of the Academic All-American College Division basketball team.

He was the only player from New York State on the first, second or third teams.

Augustine, a sophomore, has a

3.45 grade point average in economics. He averages a team-high 18 points per game on 52 percent shooting. He also grabs an average of 6.8 rebounds per game.

His 451 points this season is the eighth-highest total in Rochester's 83-year basketball history.

The award is based on voting by the 1,141-member College Sports Information Directors of America.

Unbeaten Marty King wins state mat title ★

CANANDAIGUA — Canandaigua senior Marty King, New York State's all-time winningest high school wrestler, capped his career with his second straight title Saturday night at the New York State Intersectional Championships at the Onondaga County War Memorial.

King decisioned Darrin Cummings of Smithtown East (Section 11) 6-4 to win the 126-pound title and end his career 168-11-1.

King, the 119-pound champion last year, won two bouts Friday and overwhelmed Pete Sartori of St. Francis (CHSAA) 22-4 in the semifinals. He has compiled a 76-0-1 record over the past two seasons, including a 37-0 mark this season.

King's victory led Section 5 to the intersectional team title with 207 points. Section 11 (Suffolk County) was second with 185, followed by Section 6 (Buffalo area) with 183½.

Two of the other five Finger Lakes League wrestlers in the tournament finished second, with the others placing fifth.

Butch Hibbard (98) and Paul Lamphier (105) of Canandaigua both finished second for the second straight year. Hibbard (35-4) beat Vincent Tabano (Mt. Pleasant-2) 10-5 in the semifinals before dropping a 7-0 decision to unbeaten (35-0) Gege McNeil (Huntington-11). Lamphier (32-5) topped Bret Penrith (Union-Endicott-4) 6-4 in the semis before losing 7-1 in the final to Phil Consiglia (36-2 from North Rockland-9).

Hibbard and Lamphier were second in the same weight classes last season.

Mike Locagnato of Canandaigua (91), who won his second-round bout after a first-round bye Friday, lost to Joe Lofredo (Baldwinsville-3) in the semifinals and 6-4 to Ed Jackson (Kingston-1) in the wrestlebacks. He beat J.P. Epifano (Whitehall-2) 6-1 for fifth place.

Joe Hibbard (112) of Canandaigua, who lost his opening bout Friday to eventual champion Jeff Clark (33-0 from Voorheesville-2), started his comeback with a 14-2 victory over Chris Labate (East Syracuse-Minoa). He then was pinned in 1:55 by Joe Strycharz (East Meadow-8) and finished fifth by beating Scott Allen (Tonawanda-6) 4-1.

C.C. Grant of Williamson (215), after an opening-round loss to eventual champion Jeff Ellis (39-0 from Clarence-6), came back Saturday and pinned Jim Jolicoeur (Beekmantown-7) in 38 seconds in his first consolation bout. He then decisioned Rich Ratliff (Jordan-Elbridge-3) 7-4, lost 6-1 to Mike DeCapua (New Paltz-9) and beat Mike Sanzo (Elmira Southside-4) 8-5 to place fifth.

Grant finishes the season with a 34-3 record, while Joe Hibbard ends the year 29-6 and Locagnato 34-7.

Mike Arena (Mepham-8), who decisioned Tom Becker (Beaver River-3) 17-5 in the 138-pound final to raise his record to 37-0, was named the meet's outstanding performer.

Other champions were Ricky Brzozinski (West Islip-11) at 91, Trevor Earney (Maine-Endwell-4) at 119, Joe Plante (Brentwood-11) at 132, John Suhr (Spencerport-5) at 145, Brian Kurlander (Brighton-5) at 155, Jason Morris (Burnt Hills-2) at 167, Mike Hines (Queensbury-2) at 177 and Randy Morrison (Lowville-3) at 250.
