

WRESTLING TEAM

The matmen turned in a good record, going throughout most of the season without wrestlers in two weight classes, necessitating the forfeiting of ten points a match. It included a deal win over Buffalo, by impressive margins and a tie with Colgate. Jim Thompson sparked his teammates all season as he pinned his opponents in near record times.