

Achilles, Costen Seeks Second Crowns—

25 Area Wrestlers Eye Section 5 Shields, Saturday

Twenty five wrestlers from the Wayne - Finger Lakes area, including two returning champions, will be gunning for Section 5 championships tomorrow at Penn Yan and Canisteo.

Action starts at both sites at 2 p. m. with the consolation rounds scheduled for 6:30 p. m. and the finals at 8 p. m.

Penn Yan will be the site of the Class A championships in which the top wrestlers in Section 5 from four areas will be in action. Among them will be Pete Achilles of Geneva, who won the 103 pound title last year and goes for the 112 pound crown this season.

Achilles, rated as one of the best wrestlers around, has not lost a match since the 1964 sectionals when he was beaten in the finals. He has since won 38 straight matches.

Canisteo will host the Class B tournament, also divided into four areas, and among the contestants will be Dennis Coston of Phelps who returns to defend the 154 pound crown he won last year.

The Wayne - Finger Lakes team in the Class A meet at Penn Yan will include three wrestlers from the host school, three from Geneva, two each from Waterloo and Mynderse and one each from Canandaigua, Newark and Wayne.

Penn Yan's wrestlers are Bill LaRock, who was a runner-up in the 180 pound division last year. LaRock wrestles at the same weight this year.

Also from Penn Yan are Bob

Mulberger at 165 pounds and Paul Parkman at 133 pounds.

Along with Achilles, Geneva entries are Karl Marchenese at 127 pounds and Patsy DeVellis in the unlimited division.

Mynderse will enter Paul Stratton at 138 and Steve Ritter at 154 while Waterloo sends Bob Noone at 103 and Ed Zukowski at 145.

Canandaigua's Dick Hadsell wrestles at 95 pounds while Joe Lawrence of Newark goes at 120 and Charley Dostman of Wayne will be the heavyweight.

Phelps advanced four wrestlers to the semi-finals, including three who have been there before. Last year, Coston won at 154 while Jim Kenny was runner-up at 120 pounds. Kenny wrestles at 133 pounds this season. Dan Donk, who will be at 138 pounds tomorrow, was fourth in the sectional, losing in the semi-final and consolation bouts.

The fourth Phelps entry will be Dave Williamson in the 165 pound division.

Victor will enter three in the tournament with Paul Sheldon at 103 pounds, Marty Brake at 112 pounds and Al Ramsay at 120.

Dundee entries are Bruce Dicerkson at 145 pounds and heavyweight Bill Silliman. Odessa also enters two wrestlers, Bill Borra at 95 pounds and Paul Holgate at 127.

The final Wayne Finger Lakes Wrestler is Tom Logue of Marion, the 180 pound entrant.

In the tournament at Penn Yan, the Wayne - Finger Lakes wrestlers will face the Rochester City team in the semi-finals while the Monroe County area team will go against the Steuben - Allegany team. Winners in each class move to the finals while the losers go into the consolation round.

At Canisteo, the Wayne - Finger Lakes team faces the Monroe - Livingston team and Genesee - Orleans - Wyoming goes against Steuben-Allegany. Winners here, also move to the finals with the losers dropping to the semi-finals.
