

Farm Builders Conference

A Western New York Farm Builders Conference is going to be held on March 11, 1982, at the Batavia Treadway Inn, Thruway Exit, 48, Batavia.

The objective of this program is to look at the current technical concerns of the New York farm builders and their suppliers. The program will address the following topics: ventilation and moisture control; getting ready to start building; farm building failures; financing agricultural construction in the future; and a question and answer period.

Ed Bahler, Farm Building, Inc. - a family construction business, will be the evening speaker and will discuss promoting and selling; and building your own business.

The formal program will begin at 1:00 p.m. and adjourn at approximately 8:30 p.m.

For more information regarding the Western New York Farm Builders Conference contact Gary Bigger at 343-3040 or Dave Weaver at 552-5453.
