Thomas Crimando, the varsity wrestling manager of St. John Fisher College, sent us some information on the Notre Dame of Batavia team last month. Since we are printing some of Notre Dame's tournament results here, it seems now would be as good a time as any to share with our readers the information Thomas was nice enough to send.

Notre Dame competes in the Monsignor Martin Wrestling League for Catholic schools in the Buffalo diocese. The league is now in its 7th year and for five of the first six years, Notre Dame has won either a regular season or All-Catholic championship. Last year's team won the All-Catholic Tournament at Cardinal O'Hara H.S. in North Tonawanda, scoring 111½ points. The fighting Irish are returning two All-Catholic champions: Roger Rada, a senior, and Mike Hughes, a junior. Runners-up Mike Delong, a senior, and Rick Tresco, a junior, are also back. Other returning lettermen are captain Russ Marchese, Jim Murphy, and Bill Lawrence. Mr. Edward Sullivan has been head coach of Notre Dame since the beginning of the league. He is assisted this year by Mike Strollo.

We thank Thomas Crimando for sending us this information. His knowledge of the school is first hand, as he was the team's manager for three years including last year. And now St. John Fisher is lucky enough to have his services. Below is a picture of him with Fisher coach Mike Cronmiller.
