State champs Chinn and Gillespie go for more

BROCKPORT — It is not simple to maintain championship form for an entire wrestling season.

Canandaigua senior Trevor Chinn and Webster Schroeder junior Gregor Gillespie have made it look easy this winter.

The only 2003 state champions from Section V earned another chance to show they are among the best in New York after they won their large-schools weight divisions Saturday during the SuperSectionals at SUNY Brockport.

Chinn joined Canandaigua assistant coach Marty King as the only Section V wrestlers to qualify for the state meet five times.

King was a two-time state champion, and Chinn will try to earn another title next weekend at SUNY at Buffalo after winning at 135 pounds last season.

"It's a pretty good accomplishment," Chinn said after he defeated Spencerport's Adam Snook by technical fall in the 145-pound final and improved to 39-0 and 229-22 for his career. "I haven't believed what people are telling me."

"It still feels like I'm the young one, like I'm trying to fill the shoes of the seniors. It hasn't sunk in yet that I'm a senior and that everyone is looking at me."

Gillespie defeated Greg Gelinas, Chinn's teammate and friend, by technical fall in the 130-pound final to earn his fourth trip to states. He was New York's top 119-pound wrestler last season.

Gillespie is one of the few wrestlers who can get away with wearing a Superman T-shirt. No one has defeated Gillespie in nearly two seasons, including 42 matches this winter.

"It's probably the most excited I've been since the first time I went," Gillespie said after he improved his career record to 183-10. "There was a lot of built up pressure."

"It's relieving to go again. I've been working for it. I'm really looking forward to next weekend."

So is 135-pounder Nate Patterson, one of three Wayne wrestlers to earn berths on the large-schools team.

Patterson was a second away from losing on overtime criteria, but he broke the grip of Canandaigua's Kevin Morrice to just beat the clock. When time expired, both wrestlers celebrated but Patterson's arm was raised after a quick conference between referees.

"I saw the referee give me a point and I saw (Morrice) celebrating," Patterson said. "I didn't think they were going to change their minds."

Chinn watched the match at the edge of the mat.

"I was going nuts," Chinn said. "Luckily, I had enough energy for my match. I tried to push myself and win for him, even though it doesn't work that way."

"It's tough. We work out together. He's a hard worker and a great athlete. I don't know the word for it, but I'm kind of disappointed that he couldn't pull it out."

just two seconds to spare. Sweet trailed Attica's Dylan Rusiniak 1-0, when a forward roll and a kick of a leg gave Letchworth its first state meet qualifier.

"I just had to do something," Sweet said of his two-point reversal. "I knew I had it in me. This was my last chance."

Holley senior Andrew Grillo had no more opportunities left either. He didn't leave Brockport disappointed, as he shut out Palmyra-Macedon's Bryan Rod-
