SECOND GUESSING

SPORTS

By JIM CONWAY

Dansville and area fans are expected to help pack the stands at Alfred University Saturday night when the Saxons clash with University of Rochester which will be led by big Bob Easton, the former DCHS cage star.

Easton, only a junior, was pushed into the role as the main cog in the U. of R. basketball machine this year and the 6' 6" pivotman has handled his job like a four-year veteran.

Easton, who parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Easton live at 70 Franklin St., the team's leading rebounder (and of the leaders in Eastern collegiate circles) and is a steady double-figure scorer.

The Alfred-Rochester contest is billed as a natural and without a doubt will live up to the advance notices.

The circus always winters in Florida but right now there's a double feature laugh-a-lot going on in the land of sunshine.

You can have Emmet Kelly, we'll take the two leading comedians who pose as baseball managers — Casey Stengel and Yogi Barra.

Can you image how many sides will be split when the Yanks and Mets tangle in a Grapefruit League battle which means nothing but exercise to the ballplayers? Certainly Casey is king of double-talk but Yogi is a close second.

Getting a straight answer from either of these two is like trying to find a straightaway on a go-kart track. The folks near the training camps of these two clubs will be getting double their money's worth at the exhibitions. Not only will there be baseball but you can bet your life the field will provide a stage for these two masters.

What's happened to Arnold Palmer's golf game? Nothing that a little practice and a concentra-

League Test Set Saturday At Bath High

One of Western New York's toughest wrestling league's will take the stage Saturday at Bath when the West Central Conference tournament is held in Haverling High School.

Coach Weldon Canough's undefeated Dansville squad has already won the conference crown and this tourney is strictly a competition for individual honors.

While several DCHS matmen will carry favorite rolls into this competition, three boys, Larry Barber, Bruce Kenney and Gary Kreiley, will lay undefeated records on the line.

Dansville closed its regular season here Friday evening, pinning a 33-9 defeat on Waterloo.

On Feb. 29, Dansville will host the Livingston County tournament. Section V quarter-final matches are set Mar. 3 in Churchville with the finals scheduled Mar. 7 in Geneseo.

Legion Plans Bowling Event

The first annual "His and Her" bowling tournament will be held Mar. 8 at Brae Burn Recreation Center, Dansville by the members of Daniel Goho American Legion Post and the Auxiliary.

Refreshments will follow each of three kegling shifts with awards to be presented in the evening.

Details and entry forms may be obtained at the Post home, according to Ross Glover, athletic officer.
