

YORK CENTRAL SCHOOL NEWS

By Shannon Gardner

York's Golden Knights wrestling team entered the Genesee Valley Wrestling Tournament at Genesee Central School early Friday night and finished with the competition on Saturday. York took 3rd place with 149 1/2 points, marking the 3rd consecutive year York finished in at least 3rd place and also received a trophy for their outstanding efforts. Chip Hendrickson at 138 lbs. and Todd Reed at 145 lbs. were champions. David Vascinnanie at 126 lbs. and Sam Swearingen at 132 lbs. were in 2nd, Jeff Shirmer took 3rd at 112 lbs., Randy Roffe took 4th at 119, Van Shirmer at 91 lbs. and Doug Hendrickson at 105 lbs. took 5th and at 177 lbs. Guy Reynolds placed 7th. York had a meet on Monday with Dansville home.

There was an assembly Jan. 10 for all 10th grade students interested in a special program that was the topic of the presentation put on by the vocational school.

All members of the senior class were measured for their new graduation gowns on Tuesday. Other progress news within the class was their decision to go to Washington for their senior trip in April. No further details have been yet planned.

The results of the last two basketball games are as follows: York 71, Wayland 56, which was really exciting in the third and fourth quarter after a 22-22 halftime score appeared on the scoreboard. Top scorer was Ron Whitehead with 28 points, Bill Mincey with 11, Mark Arrgenta 10, Jamie

Lawrence 10, Leo Cichelli 6, Tim Zanni 5 and Bob McCracken with 1. The next game was played Friday, Jan. 6, at Mount Morris. York's Golden Knights were not nearly as successful and suffered a 70-45 defeat. Tim Zanni was high scorer with 21 points for that game followed by Jamie Lawrence with 6, Rick Santacrocce with 7, Bill Mincey, Mark Arrgenta, Ron Whitehead, Gordy Overs and Leo Cichelli with 2 and Bob McCracken with 1.
