

★ County Wrestlers Open Tournament Today

Only one of five 1963 champions are top-seeded this year for the fifth annual Monroe County League Wrestling Tournament scheduled today and tomorrow at Eastridge High School.

All five of the former champs have moved up in class one full weight since winning 1963 titles, but only Ray Wallman of Pittsford, last year's 127-pound king and wrestling at 133 this season, is seeded No. 1 in his class, according to ratings voted by league coaches at a weekend meeting.

Other former champs are Steve Coleman of Brockport, John Krehling of Webster, Dana Jones of Spencerport and Frank Allkofer of Gates-Chili. Jones is not ranked in the top four of his new class, 127 pounds.

Top-seeded wrestlers are Webster's Bob Guerra (103), Jim Hosenfeld (154) and Bruce Rolland (unlimited); Eastridge's Lloyd Swart (95) and Keith Holderness (120); Spencerport's Dick Kamm (112) and Gary Gangross (165); Gates-Chili's Larry Sinnebox (127); Irondequoit's Jay Whipple (138); East Rochester's Larry DeCiantis (145); Brighton's Gordon DuBois (180); and Wallman.

Defending team champion for the two-day event is Irondequoit. Some 166 boys from 14 schools will participate. The preliminary round begins today at 5 p.m. with semifinals and consolations slated Saturday at 1 p.m. and finals for Saturday at 8 p.m.
