By JIM RICKEY

Monroe County League favorites East Rochester and Spencerport and City-Catholic League entry Cardinal Mooney all posted easy wins last night to regain a share of first place in their respective circuits.

East Rochester bombed Eastern Division rival Webster, 40-5, at Webster, Spencerport trounced Hilton, 35-5, at Hilton in Western Division action and Mooney stopped Jefferson, 31-11, at Jefferson.

In other Western activity, Irondequoit whipped Greece Athena, 30-11, at Irondequoit and Brockport deadlocked Greece Olympia, 24-24, at Olympia. West High pummeled Monroe, 47-3, in a C-C meet and Eastridge defeated Pittsford, 40-8, at Pittsford and Mynderse Academy dumped Rush Henrietta, 26-15, at Seneca Falls.

East Rochester, two-time defending division champ, captured 10 matches and tied another to move into the East's top spot with RH at 4-0-1. Brian O'Lena broke a 5-5 tie with a 4:44 fall in the 125-pound weight class to ignite nine straight Bomber wins. Brian, Mike and Dick O'Lena all remained undefeated as did teammate Pete Duffy. Jim McElhenny scored the lone decision for Webster, now 0-4-1.

Unbeaten Spencerport swept all but the final match to record its sixth league triumph and 12th overall. Dave Travis, Mike VanSchoick, Roger Bubel, Rick Elliott, Tom Gartland and Lee Siwicki retained unblemished slates for the Rangers. Spencerport is now tied with Eastridge for the division lead. Al Harris registered his ninth win for third place Hilton, sporting a 4-2 mark.

Dave DiBacco and Mark Urbonas each recorded their 11th win without a loss as Mooney moved into first place with defending champion Madison. DiBacco pinned his Statesman at the 1:01 mark in the 187-pound class and Urbonas decided Jeff's Gary DiNoto, 3-0 in the heavyweight pairup. Mooney and Madison own identical 10-1 records.

Irondequoit took advantage of four forfeits and unbeaten Curt Blank's ninth victory to chalk up its fifth overall success against three losses and a tie. Blank, competing in the 177 class swept a 10-0 decision, while winless Athena (0-7) won only two matches.

Mike Dougherty's 3:07 pin in the final bout snapped Brockport's loss skein at four. The tie was the first for the Blue Devils in five outings. Dan Hopper and Jerry DeHey each chalked up a first period pin for Olympia.

West High captured the initial eight matches to extend its record to 7-2 in league standings. Brothers Rufus and Myron Farewell each collected five points for the Occidentals. John Rogers saved Monroe from a shutout with a

2-1 win in the 167-pound bracket.

Twins Dave and Jim Polsi-neeli started Eastridge off to an 8-0 lead as the Lancers coasted to their eighth win in as many starts. Chip Law, Tom Prince, Vince Volpe, Gary Siconolfi and Paul Amico all retained perfect records for the winners. Pittsford is now 3-6-1.

Four grapplers remained undefeated for Rush Henrietta, but Mynderse grabbed six weight classes and tied a pair of others to up its slate to 8-0. Al Solomon, Dan Ranieri, Dale VanVechten and Rick Cenzi are still without a loss for the Comets. Greg Amidon, Stu Smith and Dave Moreland each carry undefeated slates for Mynderse.
