

★ 4 wrestlers help Brockport lead tourney

Brockport State advanced four wrestlers into the semifinals and took the lead in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division 3 championships yesterday in Binghamton.

Brockport has 43¾ points and runner-up Jumboldt (Calif.) has 35. Millersville (Pa.) is third with 29¼.

Brockport's Jerry Goodfellow (118 pounds), Scott Hill (142), Rich Sippel (177), and heavyweight Mackey Tyn-dall won all three of their matches yesterday, qualifying them for the All-American team.

Also qualifying for All-American and a possible third-place finishes are the Golden Eagles' Steve Cella (126), Bob Brenton (150), Ken McDonald (158) and Jim Habel (167).

Brockport's John Demaro (134 pounds) was eliminated in the first round and teammate Mike Rosenbauer (190) defaulted because of a hand injury.

Rochester Institute of Technology placed four wrestlers in the consolation round.

Jerry DeCausemaker (126) pinned

Local Colleges

Bill Kingsly of Mt. Union, Ohio in the second round in six minutes, 11 seconds, and was pinned by Andy Zook of Millersville, in 7:04.

RIT's John Reed (124) was beaten by Mitch Murry of Mass. Maritime 10-5, in the second round.

The Tigers' Jerry Hustin (142) lost to Bill McLarney of Mass. Maritime, 9-2, and was eliminated after McLarney lost in the second round.

RIT's Bill Catersano entered the consolation round of the 150-pound division, losing to Joe Brandenburg of Hiram, 14-4. Brandenburg went on to win and Catersano decisioned Bob Holdren of Olivet College, Michigan, in the second round, 8-4.

Heavyweight Carl Geiger was pinned in the first round by Mark McGuigan of Massachusetts Maritime in 1:32.

SOPHOMORE RON GRUBAUGH of Monroe Community College advanced to the 150-pound final in the National Junior College Tournament in Worthington, Minn. Grubaugh, from Rush-Henrietta, beat Mike Ripplinger of Ricks (Idaho) CC, 12-4, in last night's semifinals.

Grubaugh earlier defeated Glenn Simmons of Glendale (Ariz.) CC in the preliminaries, Rick Dawson of Iowa Central CC in the second round and Jim LeDoux of North Dakota State School of Science in the quarterfinals. Grubaugh meets Region 3 rival Phil Roblee of Jamestown CC in tonight's final.

Two other MCC wrestlers, 158-pound Harry Allerton and heavyweight Paul Carr, lost in the preliminaries.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL: Aileen Beneroff sunk the winning basket for the University of Rochester at the NYSAIAW Division II Tournament yesterday in Elmira, slipping by New York Institute of Technology, 55-53.

UR meets top-seed C.W. Post and Fisher meets City College of New York today in the semifinal round.