WRESTLING

The 1963-64 wrestlers started slow but as the season moved on and experience was gained, the matmen started to show their individual abilities.

Perry Jones, 123 lbs., tremendous improvement this year and usually "fit" at 115 for tournaments. Douglas Drake, 123 lbs., moved into third position in the 1963 College Division meet. Joe Lanzisera, 130 lbs., the dependable captain has met some of the nationally ranked groaners. John Keenan and Bill Thompson, both 137 lbs., are good prospects for next season. Charles Caleo, 147 lbs., starting in the second quarter, operated best at at 137. Paul Provenzano, 157 lbs., a newcomer to the sport. Verne Biehler, 167 lbs., lost a lot of action this year because of injuries. John Vanderveen, 177 lbs., outstanding at the Bloomsburg meet, best dual meet record (3-1) runner up at West Point Invitational. Charles Kuhler, heavyweight, an outstanding contributor and the most improved wrestler on the team. Bruce Helgersen, outstanding both as manager and as a team man.

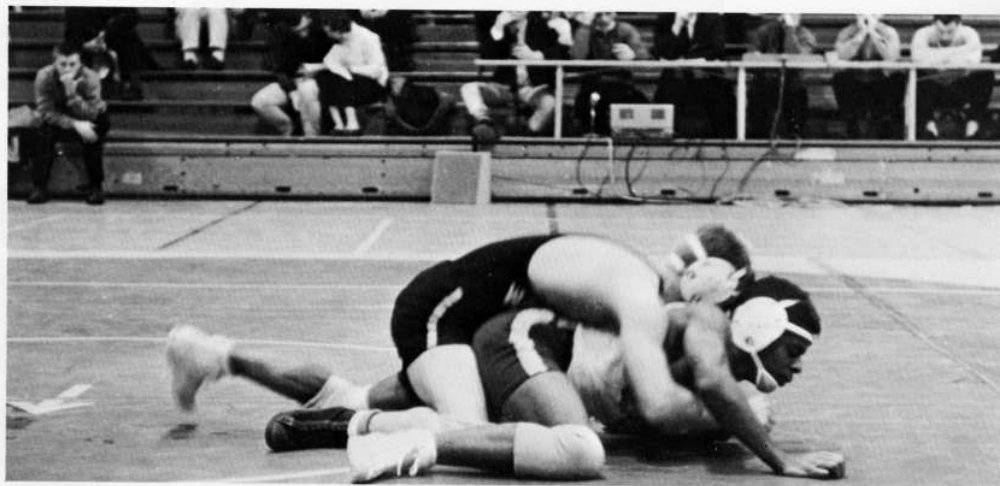

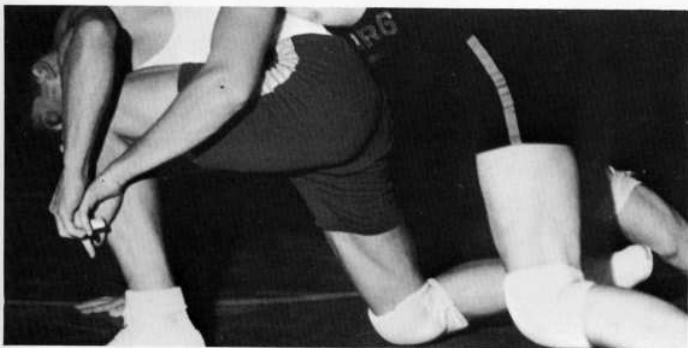

Standing: Colin Townsend, Donald Zimmerman, Walter Klein, John VanderVeen, Charles Kuhler, Bruce Helgerson. Kneeling: Douglas Drake, J. Lanzisera, Captain; Paul Lane, John Keenan.

FRESHMAN WRESTLING

The lineup for this year's wrestlers shows a variety of good prospects for the coming years.

Mike Fried, 123 lbs., works better down at 115 lbs. Jim Holley, 137 lbs., is improving and working best at 130 lbs. Bob DeCarlo, 137 lbs., is fighting fair at 130 lbs. Peter Serafine, 147 lbs., has been a hard worker with great potential. Bob McGreary, 147, captain, won one match and shows good potential. Neal Mulvenna, 147 lbs., is good. Dick Dotson, 157 lbs., undefeated. Marc Desrosiers, 167 lbs., is another hard worker with good potential. Bob Michniewicz, 177 lbs., a good prospect, is steadily improving. Harry Sexton, heavyweight, had never wrestled until this year but gave us our first win.
