

Alumni Faces Big Five

The North Shore Big Five will furnish the opposition for Lynbrook Alumni in the weekly contest at the Marion street school gymnasium tonight. The game is scheduled to start at 9 o'clock.

The graduates cancelled their regular game last night at the school court because of the scholastic game with Baldwin, but will resume against the highly touted visitors from the other side of the island tonight.

Nassau Daily Review-Star

LONG ISLAND'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

SPORTS

Page Twelve

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1938.

Honor Varsity Teams

The Crown and Lance society of Hofstra college will honor members of the football and basketball squads at a smoker to be held at the Baldwin Brauhaus, Sunrise highway, tomorrow night.

In announcing invitations, President Perry Hudson said that it was the first such affair in the history of the school and that a large turnout of male students was anticipated.

Members of the Mepham high school wrestling team which leaves tomorrow morning for Canton, N. Y., to take part in St. Lawrence university invitation tournament are shown above during final workout yesterday.

(Left) Husky Pete Krutsch tosses mate Mario Pitelli in air, a la Dusek in playful prank. (Inset) Coach Sprig Gardner. (Above) left to right standing: Frank Norton, Pete Krutsch, Frank Winter, Dick Bensen, Howard Kammerer, Donald Moore. (Front) Louis Schneider, Eddie Powers, Ray Moore, William Felant, Joe Pitelli and Mario Pitelli.

Heavy Drills Listed for All-Star Squads