

Mills sets pin record

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Gene Mills of Syracuse shattered the NCAA record for career pins when he took Antony Calderio of Slippery Rock to the mats at 6:44 in the quarterfinals of the 51st Annual NCAA Wrestling Championships Friday afternoon.

The pin was the 107th for Mills, who won the 118-pound title in 1979. He did not defend his crown in 1980 in order to prepare to make the Olympic team.

As a result of Friday's performance, the 22-year-old senior topped the old mark of 106 set by Wade Schalles of Clarion State, which was established from 1970 to 1973.

Mills, who pinned two opponents in Thursday's competition, has a total time of 16:33 for his three victories in the eight-minute matches.

Dan Cuestas of California State-Bakersfield, seeded second at 126 pounds, has the fastest time for three pins — 9:47. He made Dan Foldesyhof Cleveland State his third victim Friday afternoon in 1:50.

Iowa virtually assured itself of a fourth straight team title and a sixth over the past seven seasons by advancing six wrestlers to Friday night's semifinals.

The Hawkeyes have 53 points while Oklahoma follows with 40½. Iowa State is next with 35¾, followed by Oklahoma State with 26½ and Penn State with 21¼.

Ed Banach of Iowa, seeded second at 177 even though he is the defending champion, pinned Dave Brouhard of San Jose State in 5:56. Banach's brother, Lou, a heavyweight, registered an easy 12-4 decision over Stave Seftor of Penn State.

The Hawkeyes' other brother duo of Lenny and Jim Zelesky, gained the semifinals with similar 8-3 decisions. Lenny, seeded first at 142, defeated Antony Surage of Rutgers while Jim, seeded third at 158, advanced at the expense of Kevin Vincent of Penn State.

Mike DeAnna of Iowa, top-rated at 167, was a 9-7 winner over Steve Reedy of Penn State. Iowa's Scott Prizzino, 150, had a superior decision, 20-7, over

NCAA wrestling

Charlie Lucas of Portland State.

Iowa's Randy Lewis, the defender at 134 but seeded third because of a dislocated elbow, was defeated by Jim Gibbons of Iowa State, 13-6.

Lehigh's Darryl Burley, top-seeded at 134, was a 10-7 winner over Bob Bury of Penn State.

Colin Kilrain, a Lehigh junior who was third at 177 last year, advanced with a 4-2 win over Eli Blazeoff of Auburn.

Matt Reiss of North Carolina State, last year's champion at 167 and rated second in this tournament, was upset by John Henrahan of Penn State, 13-6.

Another major surprise saw Tom Martucci of Trenton State, a Division III wrestler, move to the semifinals with a 2-1 upset of top-seeded John Forshee of Iowa State at 190.

Ricky Stewart of Oklahoma State, who is trying to make it two straight NCAA titles at 158, routed Jan Michaels of North Carolina with a superior decision, 25-8.

Dave Schultz of Oklahoma, who is the top seed at 158, also had a superior victory, 14-1, over Jim Farina of Iowa State.

Nate Carr of Iowa State, the favorite at 150, defeated Frank Castrignano of North Carolina State, 11-7.

Ed Tidgeon of Hofstra, who eliminated top-seeded Derrick Glenn of Oklahoma in the second round Thursday night, was pinned by Dave Cooke of North Carolina in 6:38.

Bruce Baumgartner of Iowa State, the number one heavyweight, reached the semifinals at the expense of Ray Wagner of Kent State, 7-4.
