Eight Teams Expected To Compete—Finals Tomorrow Night

The Rochester amateur championships will be conducted at the Central YMCA beginning tonight at 8.15 o'clock. The finals are scheduled for tomorrow.

Teams from Turn Verein, Columbus Club, Aljo Club, Central YMCA, Maplewood YMCA, Monroe High School, Monroe YMCA and Mechanics Institute are planning to participate.

There will be eight class weights which will be all individual city championships. Donald Thomas, Gomer Stelljes, Michael Hulvenits will be the main stays of the Central YMCA team. Howard Reynolds and his teammates of the Columbus Club expect to make a good showing. Coach Paul Hauser of the Rochester Turn Verein will enter a well-balanced team.

The Aljo Club will have a team which is an unknown quantity and may prove to be the "dark horse." At the present writing entry from Mechanics Institute has not been received, but they are expected to have representatives. Some of their men will be away at Michigan State so they will be unable to enter a full team.

Officials will be: Bill Benz, Bob Grover, Ralph Curtice, Dale Brush, Gene Wallace, Louis Heck, Harry Reynolds and Fred Weismiller.
